FOUNDER

LAMAR HUNT

As the organizer of the American Football League over 35 years ago, Lamar Hunt's activities helped positively change the face of America's favorite game. Hunt is among those responsible for the development, design and direction of the modern-day National Football League.

As the founder of the Chiefs franchise, Hunt helped provide Kansas City with a team that became the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL and earned spots in two of the first four Super Bowls, while winning the 1969 World Championship. As the founder of the AFL, and principle negotiator in the merger with the NFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of professional football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport is the AFC Championship Trophy that carries his name.

Hunt's participation in the organization of the AFL was recognized when he became the first AFL figure to be honored by enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio. That honor was extended in the summer of 1972, remarkable considering he became involved in pro football just 13 years earlier.

In 1982, Hunt was singled out by the NFL Alumni Association, receiving the prestigious Leather Helmet Award. In February of 1993, he received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Football Club for continuing positive contributions to the game.

In 1960, Hunt helped make pro football history by organizing the American Football League, which included his Dallas Texans franchise. After three years, the team moved to Kansas City, where the organization begins its 33rd year in Mid-America in 1995.

The early days of the league were problem-filled but he saw his Texans achieve on-field success. In 1962, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by the Texans/Chiefs during the league's 10-year existence. The team repeated as champions in both 1966 and 1969. By winning the '66 title, the Chiefs earned the right to play in the first Super Bowl against the NFL champion Green Bay Packers. Three years later, the Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV.

Hunt has been a continuing leader in the game and few individuals have helped shape the sport more than this quiet Texan. In addition to being the chief negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late sixties, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's Championship game the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." For 28 years, he was a persistent advocate of the two-point conversion option for pro football — a rule that was finally implemented in 1994.

A year-round sports fan, Hunt is involved in several additional athletic ventures. He is one of the founding investors in the Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association, and his family will be investors in the newly-formed Major League Soccer venture, a first-division outdoor league that will begin play in 1996. Twenty-eight years ago, the Hunts were involved in the development of both the North America Soccer League and a tennis promotion company, World Championship Tennis. Both of those entities are now defunct; however, in an unusual twist, Hunt's involvement in these ventures resulted years later in his induction into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (Oneonta, New York) and International Tennis (Newport, Rhode Island). He has also been honored in the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Missouri and Texas.

As president of the American Football Conference, Hunt is a working member of several prominent NFL committees, and has actively worked on the development of the international aspects of the sport, including his service on the Board of Directors of the NFL's World League.

Hunt was born August 2, 1932, in El Dorado, Arkansas, and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in geology in 1956. While at SMU, he was a four-year reserve end on the varsity football team. He and his wife, Norma, have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron, Clark and Daniel, and the six together are the most enthusiastic supporters of Chiefs "Red and Gold."

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

JACK W. STEADMAN

In 1995, the Kansas City Chiefs began their 36th season as a pro football franchise under the leadership of Jack Steadman, Chairman of the Board.

A recognized leader among pro football administrators, Steadman has structured the Chiefs organization to meet the challenge brought about by the growth of the business of pro football over the years.

As the Chiefs begin their 33rd season in Kansas City, and their 24th season in magnificent Arrowhead Stadium, Steadman can look with pride at the list of football and administrative accomplishments the organization has achieved since moving from Dallas for the beginning of the 1963 season in the old American Football League.

It was Steadman who conceived the idea of Kansas City building the dual Harry S. Truman Sports Complex which houses the Chiefs in the 78,000-seat Arrowhead Stadium, and Royals baseball in the 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium. This complex is recognized as the finest of its kind in the world.

Steadman was promoted from General Manager to Executive Vice President and General Manager in 1966; in August of 1976 he was named President of the Chiefs in charge of all operating operations; and in 1989 was named Chairman of the Board.

After establishing himself as an innovative, successful businessman with the Kansas City Chiefs Football Club, Jack Steadman joined Lamar Hunt in the development of Worlds of Fun. The 165-acre family entertainment complex opened in 1973 and drew over 800,000 guests during its first season of operation. After 23 years, Worlds of Fun has grown from 60 rides, shows and attractions to over 140. Over 31 million guests have enjoyed Worlds of Fun since 1973.

In 1982, HME Entertainment, Inc., completed the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun. Located adjacent to Worlds of Fun, Oceans of Fun has hosted over four million guests since its opening.

In addition to serving as Chairman of the Chiefs and Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc., which owns Worlds of Fun and Oceans of Fun theme parks, Hunt Midwest Mining, a limestone rock mining company, and Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development Co., an underground and surface real estate development firm in the Kansas City International Foreign-Trade Zone, he also serves on the Board of Directors of Commerce Bank and is the Chairman of the NFL Employees Benefit Plan Committee.

Actively involved within the community since arriving in Kansas City, Steadman is a tireless worker and detailed organizer in many civic and service projects. He is a past Chairman, President and Campaign Chairman of the Heart of America United Way, and past Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City. He is a past Chairman of the Private Industry Council as well as the Full Employment Council. He serves as a director of the American Royal Association, Starlight Theatre Association, Full Employment Council, and Private Industry Council. Steadman also serves as an Advisory Trustee for Midwest Research Institute and is a member of the Civic Council. In 1988 he was honored by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City as the "Kansas Citian of the Year."

Steadman, who was born September 14, 1928, grew up in Warrenville, Ill., and in Dallas. He attended Baylor University and received his B.A. in business administration from Southern Methodist University. Jack and his wife, Martha, who also is involved in a number of civic organizations in Kansas City, live in Mission Hills, Kansas.

PRESIDENT/GM

CARL PETERSON President/General Manager and Chief Executive Officer

Under Carl Peterson's leadership the past six years, the Kansas City Chiefs have evolved into a model professional sports franchise. When Peterson took over the fortunes of the Kansas City Chiefs in December of 1988, the franchise was struggling, on the field and off, and was without any kind of national presence. All that has changed as these four examples illustrate:

- The Chiefs are the only NFL team to reach the playoffs all five seasons in the 1990's. There have only been 10 longer playoff streaks in pro football history.
- In 1994 the Chiefs averaged a team-record and NFL-most 76,734 fans per home game. In addition, more fans saw the Chiefs play live the previous two seasons than any other team in the league (2,302,101).
- The Chiefs, located in one of the league's smallest markets, ranked third in merchandise sold among all 30 teams from March 1994 to March 1995.
- The Chiefs have been on national television 25 times the past four years, including 10 appearances on ABC's Monday Night Football.

"Under Carl's leadership, the Chiefs have achieved a high level of respect as one of the leaders in the NFL," said team founder Lamar Hunt, who promoted Peterson to Chief Executive Officer in May of 1994. "This respect has been measured in several principle areas, including development and guidance of a quality organization in every phase — front office, scouting, coaching and team."

The past five seasons have been especially productive ones for the Chiefs. Kansas City's 51-29 record since 1990 is the fourth-best in the NFL behind the San Francisco 49ers (61-19), Buffalo Bills (56-24) and Dallas Cowboys (55-25). In 1993 the Chiefs captured their first AFC Western Division title since 1971 and made their first ever AFC Championship Game appearance. During the decade, the team put together four consecutive 10-win seasons for the first time ever. The Chiefs have also dominated play within their extremely competitive division, winning 27 of their last 36 AFC west games, good for a .750 winning percentage.

Playoff participation and winning seasons are nothing new to Peterson, who played an integral role in the success of the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles, USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars and UCLA. Since he was appointed Player Personnel Director of the Eagles in 1977, the pro teams he has been associated with have a combined regular season record of 147-79-2 (.649). During that 14-season span, his teams have produced winning records 13 consecutive times and made the playoffs on 12 occasions.

One area that Peterson has always excelled in is unearthing talent. He and his outstanding scouting department have used the college draft, trades and the free agent market to build the team's talent pool.

Each of the last five drafts have produced major contributors: linebacker Derrick Thomas (six Pro Bowls), cornerback Dale Carter (1994 Pro Bowler), center Tim Grunhard (five-year starter), guard Dave Szott (five-year starter), guard Will Shields (two-year starter), defensive end starter Darren Mickell, tackle/deep snapper Joe Valerio, and 1994 contributing rookies, running back Greg Hill, fullback Donnell Bennett and wide receiver Lake Dawson.

In 1993 Peterson made the trade with the 49ers brought the Chiefs quarterback Joe Montana, who led the team to a conference title game. The Chiefs have also used trades to procure quarterback Steve Bono (49ers), starting free safety William White (Detroit Lions), wide receiver Victor Bailey (Eagles) and cornerback Darren Anderson (Tampa Bay Bucs).

The scouting braintrust has also tapped the free agent market to further stockpile talent such as running back Marcus Allen, defensive tackles Dan Saleaumua and Joe Phillips, linebackers Tracy Simien and George Jamison, cornerback Mark Collins, tight ends Keith Cash and Derrick Walker, fullback Kimble Anders and punter Louie Aguiar. This year the team has also acquired the services of safeties Ronnie Lott and Brian Washington, cornerback James Hasty, fullback James Saxon and tackle Jeff Criswell.

Chiefs games since Peterson's arrival have taken on "event" status. Parking lots are filled hours before the game with barbecues, tents, bands and gatherings of all ages, shapes and sizes. Inside Arrowhead Stadium, there is a sea of red, a "college-like" atmosphere unlike any in the NFL.

Season ticket sales have soared to a level only seen in the early 1970s. In 1992, Peterson cut off season-ticket sales at 65,000, and the current ceiling is 70,000. The team's last 34 games at Arrowhead have been sold out, and last season the team drew four of the largest 10 crowds in team history.

Under Peterson, the Chiefs have also added new grass practice fields, complete with a prescription drainage system, and a much-needed indoor practice complex that includes 90 yards of omniturf plus new weight-training facilities, training rehabilitation facilities and locker rooms. In 1994 the Chiefs played their home games on a grass playing surface for the first time since 1971, the team's last season at Municipal Stadium.

Peterson's reputation as one of football's top executives began in 1977, when he became the Director of Player Personnel of the Eagles. As the man chiefly responsible for the acquisition of talent, he helped take a team which had not produced a winning season in 12 years and transformed it into a playoff participant his final four seasons. The highlight of those four years came in 1980, when the Eagles won the NFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XV in January of 1981. The Eagles had a 47-31 record in regular season play and a 3-4 mark in postseason action during Peterson's tenure.

After his rapid success with the Eagles, Peterson was the man selected to build the Philadelphia Stars when the United States Football League was launched in July of 1982. As the franchise's President and General Manager, he proceeded to assemble the most successful team in the league's three-year existence, capturing the USFL title the final two seasons. The Stars 41-12-1 record during the regular season and 7-1 mark in postseason play were easily the finest of any USFL club. His efforts were rewarded in 1983 and 1984, when he was named The Sporting News' "USFL Executive of the Year."

Peterson displayed his knack for discovering and developing young players long before he came to Kansas City. With the Eagles, he found Pro Bowl running back Wilbert Montgomery in the sixth round, claimed linebacker Jerry Robinson, the 1979 Rookie of the Year, with the 21st pick of the first round, and stole five-time Pro Bowl receiver Mike Quick with the 20th pick in round one. Several of his USFL acquisitions went on to become starters in the NFL. They include linebacker Sam Mills (Saints), center Bart Oates (Giants and 49ers), tackle Irv Eatman (Chiefs, Jets, Rams and Falcons), linebacker Mike Johnson (Browns), linebacker George Jamison (Lions and Chiefs), punter Sean Landeta (Giants and Rams) and running back Kelvin Bryant (Redskins).

After his tenure in the USFL, Peterson entered private business, serving as President and Chief Executive Officer of Phillysport magazine in Philadelphia.

A 1966 graduate of UCLA, Peterson began his coaching career as an assistant at two California high schools, Wilson High in 1966 and Loyola High in 1967-68. He entered the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant at Cal-State at Sonoma in 1969, then was named head coach in 1970. He spent two years there before returning to his alma mater in 1972. He served as the Bruins receivers coach under Pepper Rodgers for two years, then remained on the staff as receivers coach and administrative assistant when Dick Vermeil became the school's head coach in 1974. Peterson stayed with Vermeil for two years at UCLA before the two made their move to the NFL, where he coached the Eagles receivers and tight ends in 1976.

Peterson serves on the National Boards for the Maxwell Football Club and Pop Warner Little Scholar Organization. He was recently elected Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Pop Warner. He is also a member of the Kansas City chapter of the Young President's Organization, as well as a member of the International World President's Organization.

The 51-year-old Peterson grew up in Long Beach, California, and attended both the U.S. Military Academy in West Point and UCLA. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology from UCLA in 1966, a Master's Degree in Kinesiology in 1967 and later earned a Doctorate in High Education at UCLA in 1970.

Carl is single, resides in Kansas City, Missouri, and has one daughter Dawn, who is currently working in marketing and public relations with the Scottish Claymores of the World League.

ADMINISTRATION

TIM CONNOLLY

Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer

Under the direction of Tim Connolly the past six years, the Kansas City Chiefs have become leaders off the field as well as on it. Connolly, who assumed his role as Executive Vice President in 1989 and added the title of Chief Operating Officer in June of 1994, has initiated several positive changes in the team's front office that have yielded groundbreaking results. His intuition and organizational skills have made the Chiefs a "model" professional sports franchise.

The Chiefs take a string of 34 straight sellouts into the 1995 season, and with a season-ticket base at a self-imposed cap of 70,000, the club is virtually assured of a packed house for the two preseason games and eight regular season contests this year. Last season, the Chiefs averaged 76,734 fans, the most in team history and the most in the NFL in 1994. The Chiefs have averaged over 70,000 fans in each of the past five seasons, and last year, the team drew four of the 10 largest crowds in Arrowhead Stadium history. The Chiefs (76,226) and the Buffalo Bills (76,448) are the only two teams in the NFL to average over 75,000 fans per game the past two seasons.

When Connolly took over the front office, the Chiefs had fewer than 30,000 season-ticket holders in a 78,000-seat stadium and a somewhat tranquil game-day atmosphere. Under his leadership, a Chiefs game is now a happening. Several sports franchises have studied the Chiefs in order to add more flavor to their events.

The 46-year-old Connolly has been instrumental in expanding both the Chiefs radio network and preseason television package, which both now serve an ever-increasing fan base in the Midwest. In addition, he has been responsible for over $18.1 million of capital expansion in the last five years.

On the administrative front, the Chiefs are now considered "leading edge." The recent installation of state-of-the-art computer systems, phone systems, and electronic ticketing systems have moved the Chiefs to the forefront of the NFL in technology and administrative productivity.

Connolly came to Kansas City after serving as President and Chief Executive Officer of two Bell Atlantic subsidiaries: Bell Atlantic Mobile Systems, Bell Atlantic's cellular phone company; and SORBUS Corporation, the largest independent computer maintenance organization in the world.

He began his business career in 1971 at the IBM Corporation, where he served in various sales, staff and management positions. He graduated from George Washington University with a degree in finance.

Tim and his wife, Kathy, reside in Overland Park, Kansas, and have three children, Jennifer, Brianne and John.

DENNIS THUM

Assistant General Manager

Dennis Thum, who has played a major role in the Kansas City Chiefs front office the past 22 years, has been the club's Assistant General Manager since 1989. Thum assists Carl Peterson, the team's President, General Manager and Chief Executive Officer, in overseeing the football side of the Chiefs operation.

"Denny Thum is the unsung hero of this organization," noted Peterson. "Without Denny, there are many things we would not have been able to accomplish. He's invaluable to me."

The 43-year-old Thum is heavily involved in the preparation of the entire football budget, is active in the negotiations of all player contracts, monitors the recently-imposed salary cap, and helps service the coaching staff, trainers, equipment personnel and video staff. He is also in charge of training camp operations and coordinates the team's travel.

Thum held the position of Assistant to the General Manager from '84 to '88, and was promoted to his current position shortly after Peterson's arrival in Kansas City six years ago. He served as the club's Director of Accounting in '83 and Chief Accountant in '82. The St. Louis, Missouri, native joined the Chiefs as a staff accountant in '74, the same year he graduated from Rockhurst College in Kansas City.

Born November 14, 1951, Dennis and his wife, Carmen, live in Kansas City, Missouri, with their two daughters, Megan (14) and Lindsay (11).

LYNN STILES, Vice President of Player Personnel

Lynn Stiles, who begins his 17th season in the NFL, joined the Chiefs in February of 1992 as a consultant and was promoted to Vice President of Player Personnel in May of that year. Stiles oversees all of the club's scouting operations (pro and college).

Under the direction of Stiles and through the coordinated efforts of both the college and pro areas of the personnel department, the Chiefs have acquired over 70 players the past three years that were on the team's 80-man roster heading into training camp. Among those players are 20 draft picks, three trade acquisitions, nine unrestricted free agents and several other free agents, uniting to form a group that should help the Chiefs remain a perennial playoff contender.

Along with Stiles' personnel responsibilities, he also oversees the player programs/player development program, which offers assistance to players off the field and helps to prepare them for life after football.

The 54-year-old Stiles rejoined Carl Peterson, the Chiefs President/General Manager. Stiles and Peterson worked together from 1972-75 at UCLA and from 1979-82 in the Philadelphia Eagles organization.

Stiles was previously an assistant coach with the San Francisco 49ers. He joined Bill Walsh's staff in 1987 as special teams coach, and was promoted to special teams coordinator and tight ends coach in 1989 by Head Coach George Seifert. In 1991 he picked up additional duties as offensive line assistant. He helped the 49ers win back-to-back Super Bowl titles in 1988-89.

Prior to his five-year stint with the 49ers, Stiles served as an assistant coach and player personnel director with the Eagles from 1979-86. He coached special teams and tight ends, while also serving as an administrative assistant to Head Coach Dick Vermeil, highlighted by the 1980 Super Bowl. He then followed Peterson as Director of Player Personnel and was eventually elevated to Executive Director of Player Personnel with the club. He helped Philadelphia acquire such talents as quarterback Randall Cunningham, defensive end Reggie White, linebacker Seth Joyner, defensive end Clyde Simmons and running back Keith Byars.

Stiles was the Head Coach at San Jose State from 1976-78, compiling an 18-16 record and two conference championships. During his first season with the Spartans, he oversaw the development of quarterback Steve DeBerg, who was named Pacific Coast Athletic Conference MVP his only year of major college football. He also served as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at UCLA (1970-75) under Pepper Rodgers and Vermeil, while helping the Bruins win the 1976 Rose Bowl. From 1966-70, he coached the defensive linemen and linebackers at the University of Utah.

Stiles played both ways at Utah (1959-62), gaining all-conference recognition as a guard/linebacker as well as being selected to the all-academic squad in 1962. He also played in the 1963 All-American Bowl. He was a two-time all-state pick as a prep athlete at Reno (Nev.) High School (1956-59).

Born April 12, 1941, in Kermit Texas, Lynn and his wife, Marigene, live in Kansas City, and have four children, Staci (29), Shon (25), Tiffany (17) and Blake (15).

DENNIS WATLEY - Vice President of Sales & Marketing

Dennis Watley, now in his sixth year with the Chiefs, was promoted to Vice President of Sales and Marketing in 1995.

Watley oversees all areas of ticket sales (group and season), marketing, promotions, advertising and game-day productions. Under his direction, the Chiefs led the NFL in attendance in 1994, and extended the team's string of sellouts to 34 heading into the 1995 season. He was instrumental in developing the VIP Tent and all corporate tailgate parties which have added to the Chiefs enjoyable pre-game atmosphere.

Over the past five years, the Chiefs have emerged as a role model for other teams in the league in all areas of marketing, and NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue has stated that the Chiefs game production is "the best in the NFL."

For 16 years prior to joining the Chiefs, the 47-year-old Watley was employed by National Steel Service Centers, a one-billion-dollar metals distribution company serving eight states in the Midwest. He left National Steel in 1985 as President of the Midwest Division and joined D.W. Newcomer's Sons in Kansas City as Director of Training and Development.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Watley attended William Jewell College and UMKC on an athletic scholarship from 1966-70, majoring in business and marketing, with additional studies in Iowa and Houston, Texas. Dennis lives in Lee's Summit, Missouri, with his wife, Carolyn, and their four children, Shelby (21), Lori (19), Matthew (11) and Ellen (9).

HEAD COACH

MARTY SCHOTTENHEIMER

"The best way to establish a position of excellence in the NFL is to expect it." Those prophetic words ushered in the Marty Schottenheimer era back on January 24, 1989.

In the 17 years before Schottenheimer's arrival in Kansas City, expectations were often high but rarely realized as the club averaged just six wins per season and made only one playoff appearance. During Schottenheimer's six campaigns as the Chiefs head coach, his teams have averaged 10 wins and advanced to the playoffs on five straight occasions. It is safe to say the Chiefs now expect to win, and do so often.

"He is, without a doubt, the fiercest competitor I have ever met," said Carl Peterson, the Chiefs President, General Manager and CEO. "His record clearly speaks for itself. When I hired Marty, I knew it would be the best decision I would make in restructuring the Chiefs."

As the Chiefs head coach, Schottenheimer has put together a sparkling regular season record of 59-35-1, good for a franchise-record .620 winning percentage. The Chiefs have made five consecutive playoff appearances, the longest current streak in the entire NFL. He directed the Chiefs to their first division title in 22 years in 1993, and has guided the club to six of their eight winning seasons since 1974.

Including his four-and-a-half year stint as the head coach of the Cleveland Browns, Schottenheimer has a superb regular season mark of 103-63-1, making his winning percentage .620, the third-highest among active coaches with at least four full seasons (George Seifert, .781, and Don Shula, .679). He has coached nine straight teams to winning records and led seven of his 10 clubs to 10-win seasons. He has been in the playoffs nine of his 10 full seasons as a head coach, steering three of those to a conference title game, and is the only NFL coach that has taken his team to the playoffs nine times since 1985. Since '85, he leads all NFL coaches with 99 regular season victories. His teams have won four division titles, one with Kansas City and three with Cleveland, while never finishing worse than second place.

In 1994 Schottenheimer registered his 100th regular season win, a milestone reached by just 20 other coaches in NFL history. He also became just the fourth head coach in league annals to defeat all 28 NFL teams, joining Chuck Knox, Bum Phillips and Marv Levy.

Kansas City's 51-29 record during the 1990s is the fourth-best in the NFL behind only the San Francisco 49ers (61-19), Buffalo Bills (56-24) and Dallas Cowboys (55-25). During the decade the Chiefs lead the AFC in most takeaways (193, also leads NFL), fewest giveaways (116), opponent fumble recoveries (101, leads NFL), most sacks (223) and fewest interceptions thrown (55). The Chiefs have been the dominant team in the AFC West during the decade, winning 28 of their 40 games in the division for an impressive .700 winning percentage.

Last season the Chiefs ventured to the playoffs for the fifth year in a row with a 9-7 regular season mark. The playoff berth came despite the fact that key offensive players—Joe Montana, Marcus Allen, Kimble Anders, Willie Davis, J.J. Birden, John Alt and Keith Cash—were available for just six games together.

In 1993 the Chiefs enjoyed their finest season since the 1969 World Championship campaign. The club captured its first division crown since 1971 with an 11-5 record and made its first title game appearance since 1969. The team manufactured dramatic come-from-behind victories over the Pittsburgh Steelers and red-hot Houston Oilers to earn a trip to their first ever AFC Championship Game. The Chiefs swept the Los Angeles Raiders, San Diego Chargers and Seattle Seahawks en route to a 7-1 record in AFC West games, the best in team history.

Despite injuries to several key players, the Chiefs battled to a 10-6 record and another playoff berth in 1992. Their team showed its true heart in a season-ending, 42-20 victory over the Denver Broncos that put Kansas City into postseason play.

In 1991 the Chiefs won their first playoff game since Super Bowl IV (Jan. 11, 1970) by upending the Raiders, 10-6, in an AFC Wild Card contest. That victory took place at Arrowhead, marking the first ever playoff game in the structure, which was completed in 1972.

In 1990 Schottenheimer directed the Chiefs to an 11-5 record, the club's finest in 21 years. He also led the team into postseason play for just the second time since 1971 and the first time since 1986. In the first-round playoff game, the Chiefs dropped a thrilling, 17-16 decision to the Miami Dolphins.

The reversal of the Chiefs fortunes began in 1989, Schottenheimer's first season with the club. That season Kansas City posted an 8-7-1 mark and missed the playoffs by ½-game.

Schottenheimer firmly established himself as one of the NFL's best head coaches before arriving in Kansas City. In his four full seasons as the Browns head coach, he produced four playoff berths, three AFC Central titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and consensus AFC Coach of the Year honors in 1986.

Schottenheimer embarked upon his first head coaching assignment at midseason in 1984 when the Browns promoted him from defensive coordinator to head coach as Sam Rutigliano's replacement. He took over a 1-7 team, yet managed to direct the Browns to a 4-4 finish in the season's second half. Three of the four losses were by field goals late in the game.

In 1985, his first full season as a head coach, Schottenheimer guided the Browns to the AFC Central title. The following year, he earned consensus Coach of the Year honors after piloting Cleveland to a 12-4 record, a second straight division crown and a spot in the AFC Championship Game, which the Browns lost to the Broncos, 23-20, in overtime. Cleveland gained a third straight division title in 1987, and for the second consecutive year advanced to the AFC Championship Game, falling to Denver again, 38-33. Despite losing three quarterbacks and several other starters to injury in 1988, he led the Browns to a 10-6 mark and a playoff entry for the fourth year in a row.

Schottenheimer started his coaching career with the World Football League's Portland Storm in 1974. He opened that season as a player, but a shoulder injury ended his playing career, although he did continue tutoring the team's linebackers. A year later, he joined Bill Arnsparger — the architect of the Miami Dolphins "No-Name Defense" — with the New York Giants as linebackers coach, then was promoted to defensive coordinator at age 34 under John McVay in 1977. He then became the Detroit Lions linebackers coach in 1978 staying there two years before making the move to Cleveland.

In 1965 Schottenheimer was selected in the fourth round of the NFL draft by the Baltimore Colts and in the seventh round of the AFC draft by the Buffalo Bills. He signed with the Bills and played with the club from 1965-68. He joined the Boston Patriots in 1969, playing two seasons there before being traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1971. After a training camp stint Chuck Noll, the Steelers traded him back to the Colts, but he retired three weeks later. Following his retirement, he worked in real estate in Denver until resurfacing in the WFL.

Schottenheimer was an All-America linebacker at the University of Pittsburgh, where he has been named to the school's all-time team. He played in the 1965 College All-Star Game at Soldier Field in Chicago (Browns beat All-Stars, 24-16). In that game, he played alongside Dick Butkus, Fred Biletnikoff, Roger Staubach, Bob Hayes and Bill Curry.

Schottenheimer was an honor student and football/basketball standout at Ft. Cherry High School in McDonald, Pa. He was an All-Western Pennsylvania linebacker on the football squad and the center on the state championship basketball team. He then began his college career at Pitt, where he earned an English degree.

Schottenheimer is a licensed pilot and flew with the Navy's Blue Angels in February of 1992.

Born September 23, 1943, in Canonsburg, Pa., Marty and his wife, Pat, have two children, Kristen (25), who works in advertising, and Brian (21), who is a junior quarterback at the University of Florida. The Schottenheimers reside in Overland Park, Kansas.

COACHING STAFF

RUSS BALL - Assistant Strength and Conditioning

Beginning his seventh season as a strength and conditioning specialist in the NFL, Russ Ball assists Dave Redding in the physical development of the club's athletes. The 35-year-old Ball also serves as the team's training camp coordinator in River Falls, Wisconsin.

Ball was the head strength coach at the University of Missouri from '82-88. The Columbia, Missouri, native earned four letters as a center at Central Missouri State University, where he was an all-conference selection as a senior in '80. Ball was an all-state performer at Columbia Highman High School in Columbia, Missouri. In '90, he earned a Master's Degree in Human Performance from the University of Missouri.

Coaching Career: University of Missouri 1981-88; joined Chiefs in 1989. Education: University of Missouri (M.A. '90), Central Missouri State University (B.S. '81). Birthdate: August 28, 1959. Family: Single.

JOHN BUNTING - Linebackers

John Bunting, now in his third season with the Chiefs, begins his first season tutoring the club's linebackers after serving as a defensive assistant the past two years. The 44-year-old Bunting came to Kansas City from NCAA Division III Rowan College in Glassboro, New Jersey, where he served as head coach for five years ('88-92) and compiled a 38-14-2 record which included two NCAA playoff berths ('91, '92). After compiling a perfect 10-0 regular season mark in '92, he was named Division III Coach of the Year by the Metropolitan New York Football Writers Association.

Prior to taking over the head coaching post, the Portland, Maine, product coached the defensive line at Rowan ('87), defensive ends at Brown University ('86), and linebackers for the USFL's Baltimore Stars ('85). A 10th-round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles in '72, Bunting played in 133 NFL games, primarily as a starting OLB for the Eagles over 11 seasons ('72-82), and was also part of the Eagles Super Bowl XV squad.

He went on to play two years ('83-84) with the USFL's Philadelphia Stars and was a member of the Stars '84 USFL Championship squad. A three-year starter at the University of North Carolina, Bunting was a co-captain as a senior when he earned honorable mention All-America honors in addition to All-Atlantic Coast Conference accolades.

Coaching Career: USFL Baltimore Stars 1985; Brown University 1986; Rowan College 1987-92 (head coach 1988-92); joined Chiefs in 1993. Education: University of North Carolina (B.S. '72). Birthdate: July 15, 1950. Family: Wife - Dawn; Children - Kim (26) and Brooks (21).

GUNTHER CUNNINGHAM - Defensive Coordinator

A noted defensive specialist, Gunther Cunningham begins his first season as the Chiefs defensive coordinator. The 47-year-old Cunningham has implemented an attacking defensive scheme which calls for increased upfield penetration from the defensive line and an increasingly aggressive posture at every position.

As a member of the Los Angeles Raiders staff the past four seasons ('91-94), the Munich, Germany, native served as the club's defensive coordinator in '92 and '93 in addition to tutoring the club's defensive line ('94), as well as coaching the Raider linebackers ('91).

As Los Angeles' defensive coordinator in '93, the Raiders allowed an average of just 295.2 yards per game, a figure which ranked third in AFC and ninth in the National Football League. The Raiders pass defense was also one of the league's best under Cunningham, relinquishing just 178.6 yards per game, the third-lowest figure in the AFC and the fifth-lowest total in the league. His charges racked up 45 sacks in '93, the fourth-highest mark in the AFC which also tied as the seventh-best total in the NFL. Cunningham's defense was just as tough in '92, ranking fourth in the AFC and ninth in the NFL. The Raider pass defense was especially stingy, ranking sixth in the AFC and allowing an NFL-low 11 TD passes.

Last season, Cunningham was credited with aiding in the development of the Raiders defensive tackle Chester McClockton, who earned a trip to the Pro Bowl in just his second NFL season after posting 9½ sacks in '94. He also figured prominently in the maturation of defensive end Anthony Smith who racked up 31½ quarterback wrap-ups the past three seasons.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Cunningham spent six seasons as a mentor for the San Diego Chargers defensive line ('85-90). During three of those six years, the Chargers led the AFC in sacks, including a franchise-record 62 quarterback take-downs in '86. Under Cunningham's tutelage, Leslie O'Neal and Lee Williams developed into two of the league's most productive defensive linemen, combining for 107 sacks during his stay in San Diego. Cunningham began his NFL career with the Baltimore Colts as a defensive line coach in '82 and remained in that capacity through the club's '84 season in Indianapolis after entering the pro ranks coaching defensive line and linebackers for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger Cats in '81.

Cunningham graduated from the University of Oregon where he was a linebacker and place kicker from '66-68. He embarked on a coaching career at his alma mater the next season and tutored the Ducks defensive line for three seasons ('69-71) before moving on to Arkansas ('72) and Stanford ('73-76). At the University of California, he coached the secondary in '77, linebackers in '78, and served as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach for his final two seasons with the Bears ('79-80).

Coaching Career: University of Oregon 1969-71; Arkansas 1972; Stanford 1973-76; University of California 1977-80; CFL Hamilton Tiger-Cats 1981; Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts 1982-84; San Diego Chargers 1985-90; Los Angeles Raiders 1991-94; joined Chiefs in 1995. Education: University of Oregon (B.A. '69). Birthdate: June 19, 1949. Family: Wife - Rene; Children - Natalie (19) and Adam (13).

JIM ERKENBECK - Tight Ends/Offensive Assistant

A former Chiefs assistant from '89-91, 36-year coaching veteran Jim Erkenbeck rejoins the Kansas City staff in '95 as the squad's tight ends coach and an offensive assistant. The 62-year-old Erkenbeck spent the past three seasons ('92-94) as the offensive line coach of the Los Angeles Rams.

Prior to his first stint with the Chiefs, Erkenbeck tutored the offensive line of the Dallas Cowboys ('87-88) and New Orleans Saints ('86), in addition to serving as the offensive coordinator of the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars ('83-85), as well as the CFL's Calgary Stampeders ('82), Montreal Alouettes (1978-81), and Winnipeg Blue Bombers ('77).

Erkenbeck began his coaching career as head coach at El Capitan (Cal.) High School in '60 before becoming an assistant under Don Coryell at San Diego State ('61-63). He served as head coach at Grossmont (Cal.) JUCO ('64-67) and then served assistant coaching appointments at Utah State ('68), Washington State ('69-71), and the University of California ('72-76).

Coaching Career: San Diego State 1961-63; Grossmont (Cal.) JUCO (head coach) 1964-67; Utah State 1968; Washington State 1969-71; University of California 1972-76; CFL Winnipeg Blue Bombers 1977; CFL Montreal Alouettes 1978-81; CFL Calgary Stampeders 1982; USFL Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars 1983-85; New Orleans Saints 1986; Dallas Cowboys 1987-88; Kansas City Chiefs 1989-91; Los Angeles Rams 1992-94; rejoined Chiefs in 1995. Education: San Diego State (B.A. '52). Birthdate: September 10, 1933. Family: Wife - Jocelyne; Children - Jeff (34) and Jimmy (32).

PAUL HACKETT - Offensive Coordinator

An exceptional collection of professional and collegiate players owe a substantial portion of their success to Paul Hackett, who enters his third season as the Chiefs offensive coordinator. During the course of his coaching career, the 48-year-old Hackett has overseen the development of offensive luminaries including the likes of Joe Montana, Marcus Allen, Jerry Rice, Steve Bartkowski, Brian Sipe, Charles White, Danny White, Tony Dorsett, Dwight Clark, and Vince Evans and has worked under head coaches Bill Walsh, Tom Landry, John Robinson, and Sam Rutigliano.

Hackett's offensive system continued to roll in '94, racking up 355.8 yards per game to rank third in the AFC in fifth in the NFL. That offensive output was a 53.6-yard increase from his first season with the Chiefs in '93 and an 85.5-yard jump from '92. Kansas City's 5,692 yards of total offense last season were the most in team history, while the 355.8-yards per game average ranked second in Chiefs annals (365.3 in '66). The Chiefs offense set a franchise record with six games with at least 400 total yards and tied a team mark with 322 first downs. The club's rushing offense generated 108.3 yards per game to rank sixth in the AFC and 11th in the NFL while the team's passing offense accounted for 247.5 yards per game to rank fourth in the American Conference and seventh in the NFL. In addition, the club relinquished a mere 19 sacks, the lowest total in franchise history, and the third-lowest mark in the NFL last season.

Making last season's offensive accomplishments even more impressive was the fact that the club's key offensive players (Joe Montana, Marcus Allen, Kimble Anders, Willie Davis, J.J. Birden, John Alt, and Keith Cash) were available together for just six games. In their absence, Hackett carefully honed the skills of first-year Chiefs Steve Bono, Lake Dawson, Greg Hill, Derrick Walker, and Donnell Bennett who were responsible for 2,647 yards of total offense and 11 TDs in '94.

While coaching the San Francisco 49ers quarterbacks and receivers under Bill Walsh ('83-85), he helped develop an innovative offense which would serve as a standard of excellence into the '90s. With the 49ers, he helped train one of the greatest players in NFL history - Joe Montana. During the three years Hackett worked with Montana, the future Hall of Famer put up some incredible numbers: 914 completions, 1,441 attempts, 63.4 completions percentage, an average of 3,731 passing yards per season, 81 TDs and just 35 INTs. During Hackett's tenure, the 49ers made three playoff appearances and claimed a win in Super Bowl XIX.

After his stint with the 49ers and a three-year term under Tom Landry as the Dallas Cowboys pass offense coordinator ('86-88), he moved onto the University of Pittsburgh ('89-92). He coached the Panthers offense in '89 before being named the club's head coach just one hour before Pitt's John Hancock Bowl appearance on Dec. 30, 1989. Pitt quarterback Alex Van Pelt ranked in the NCAA's Top 10 in total offense in '91 and '92, and despite a 3-9 record in '92, the Panthers still finished eighth in the nation in both total offense (452.4 yards per game) and passing offense (290.3 yards per game).

As a senior at UC-Davis in '68, Hackett led the Far West Conference in passing and stayed on to coach the school's freshman squad the next two seasons. He moved on to Cal-Berkley ('72-75), where as quarterback coach from '74-75, Steve Bartkowski led the nation in passing in '74 and the following year, the school's offense was the NCAA's best. From '76-80 at USC, Hackett oversaw the development of Heisman Trophy winners Marcus Allen and Charles White, as well as quarterbacks Vince Evans and Paul McDonald as the Trojans won three Rose Bowls and claimed a national title in '79 before joining the Cleveland Browns ('81-82) to open his pro coaching career.

Coaching Career: University of California-Davis 1970-71; University of California 1972-75; University of Southern California 1976-80; Cleveland Browns 1981-82; San Francisco 49ers 1983-85; Dallas Cowboys 1986-88; University of Pittsburgh 1989-92 (head coach 1990-92); joined Chiefs in 1993. Education: (University of California-Davis (B.A. '69). Birthdate: July 5, 1947. Family: Wife - Elizabeth; Children - David (24) and Nathaniel (15).

CARL HAIRSTON - Defensive Line

Carl "Big Daddy" Hairston begins his first season as the Chiefs defensive line coach after spending last season as a pro scout in the club's player personnel department. He also assisted with the defensive line duties during the team's '94 training camp. Before joining Kansas City last year, the 42-year-old Hairston spent three seasons as a scout with the Phoenix Cardinals ('91-93) following a stellar 15-year NFL playing career.

One of the finest defensive ends of his era, Hairston appeared in 234 NFL contests (184 starts), registering 1,141 tackles and 94 sacks. He played one season with Phoenix ('90), six years in Cleveland ('84-89) - five of which were under Head Coach Marty Schottenheimer, and eight seasons in Philadelphia ('76-83). A seventh-round pick of the Eagles in the '76 draft, Hairston went on start all eight seasons he was in Philadelphia, captaining the defense from '79-83 and racking up 100 or more tackles five straight years ('77-81). In '79, he led the Eagles and the NFC with a career-best 15 sacks. The Martinsville, Virginia, product participated in 15 career playoff contests and was a member of the Eagles Super Bowl XV squad.

A four-year starter at linebacker and defensive end at Maryland-Eastern Shore, Hairston earned collegiate all-conference honors on three occasions.

Coaching Career: Phoenix Cardinals (scout) 1991-93; joined Chiefs in 1994. Education: Maryland-Eastern Shore (B.A. '85). Birthdate: December 15, 1952. Family: Children - Carl, Jr. (15) and Crystal (12).

WOODROW LOWE - Defensive Asst./Asst. Special Teams

A 12-year National Football League veteran as a player, Woodrow Lowe makes his debut as a pro coach with the Chiefs in '95 as a defensive assistant and assistant special teams coach after serving as a starting linebacker for the San Diego Chargers from '76-86.

The 40-year-old Lowe has played and started more games than any other defensive player in Chargers history. He began his pro career as a fifth-round draft pick of San Diego in '76 and concluded in '87 when a knee injury forced him to retire. In 164 career games (151 starts), he accounted for 973 tackles, 21½ sacks, 21 interceptions, and nine fumble recoveries. A Chargers team captain his final seven seasons, the Columbus, Georgia, native missed just one game in an 11-year span from '76-86. At the University of Alabama, Lowe earned four letters as a linebacker and captained the Crimson Tide as a senior in '75.

Lowe embarked on his coaching career in '90, after a three-year stint in private business. His first position was at Russell County High School in Seale, Alabama. After two seasons there, he moved on to his high school alma mater of Central High School in Phenix City, Alabama, where he helped lead the club to a state championship in '92. In '93, Lowe was named head coach at Selma (Ala.) High School.

Coaching Career: Russell County HS, Seale, Ala. 1990-91; Central HS, Phenix City, Ala. 1992; Selma HS, Selma, Ala. 1993-94; joined Chiefs in 1995. Education: University of Alabama (B.A. '75). Birthdate: June 9, 1954. Family: Wife - Linda; Children - Woodrow, Jr. (20), Briana (16), Adrienne (13), and Benjamin (5).

MIKE MCCARTHY - Quarterbacks

Mike McCarthy begins his first season as the Chiefs quarterbacks coach after serving in an offensive assistant/quality control capacity the past two seasons. The 31-year-old McCarthy continues his tutelage under offensive coordinator Paul Hackett, after serving as Hackett's receiver's coach at the University of Pittsburgh in '92 when the Panthers offense ranked 12th in the nation. McCarthy originally joined the Pittsburgh staff as a volunteer assistant in '89, before serving as a graduate assistant the next two years. McCarthy began his coaching career as a linebackers coach at Fort Hays (Kan.) State in '87-88.

A collegiate tight end, the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, native began his career at Scottsdale (Ariz.) Junior College before transferring to Baker University in Baldwin City, Kansas, where he was a two-time all-conference pick and captain of Baker's '86 NAIA Division II national champion runner-up squad.

Coaching Career: Fort Hays State University 1987-88; University of Pittsburgh 1989-92; joined Chiefs in 1993. Education: Fort Hays State University (M.A. '88), Baker University (B.A. '87). Birthdate: November 10, 1963. Family: Wife - Christine; Children - Alexandra (4).

JIMMY RAYE - Running Backs

Considered one of the NFL's brightest offensive minds, 19-year NFL coaching veteran Jimmy Raye begins his third season as the Chiefs running backs coach after spending one season as an offensive assistant/tight ends coach with the club. Last season under Raye's tutelage, Kansas City running backs hauled in a club-record 134 receptions.

The 49-year-old Raye came to Kansas City after serving as the L.A. Rams receivers coach and passing game coordinator in '91 and spending '90 as New England's offensive coordinator.

He served two stints as Atlanta's wide receivers coach ('87-89, '80-82) in addition to holding offensive coordinator posts for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers ('85-86) and L.A. Rams ('84), after serving as the Rams receivers coach in '83. In '78-79 he was on the same Detroit staff as Marty Schottenheimer, and coached the Lions defensive backs. He entered the pro coaching ranks in '77 as the San Francisco 49ers receivers coach.

The Fayetteville, North Carolina, native spent '69 as a defensive back for the Philadelphia Eagles before beginning his coaching career at Michigan State ('71-75) and moving on to Wyoming ('76) prior to joining the NFL. A collegiate quarterback at Michigan State ('65-67), Raye led the Spartans to two Big Ten titles and a '66 Rose Bowl appearance. He also started in Michigan State's "Battle of the Century" vs. Notre Dame in '66 that resulted in a 10-10 tie.

Coaching Career: Michigan State University 1971-75; University of Wyoming 1976; San Francisco 49ers 1977; Detroit Lions 1978-79; Atlanta Falcons 1980-82; Los Angeles Rams 1983-84, 1991; Tampa Bay Buccaneers 1985-86; New England Patriots 1990; joined Chiefs in 1993. Education: Michigan State University (B.A. '67). Birthdate: March 26, 1946. Family: Wife - Edwena; Children - Robin and Jimmy III (25), a receiver at San Diego State ('88-90), who is spending the '95 season as a coaching intern with the Chiefs.

DAVE REDDING - Strength and Conditioning

One of the most highly-respected strength coaches in all of football, Dave Redding enters his seventh campaign coordinating the Chiefs off-season strength and conditioning program and in-season maintenance efforts. Upon joining the club in '89, he redesigned the Chiefs weight-training facilities and instituted a personalized conditioning program that not only includes weightlifting, but also stresses flexibility, running, plyometric drills, and speed enhancement. In '93, Redding was honored by receiving the Emrich/Riecke/Jones Award sponsored by U.S.A. Fitness which was voted on by his NFL peers.

The 43-year-old North Platte, Nebraska, native became the Cleveland Browns first strength and conditioning coach in '82 and stayed in that capacity until joining the Chiefs in '89. Prior to arriving in Cleveland Redding served as the strength coach at the University of Missouri ('78-81) and at Washington State University ('77), where he also worked with the Cougars' defensive ends. A three-year letterwinner as a defensive end at the University of Nebraska, Redding began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Cornhuskers in '76.

Coaching Career: University of Nebraska 1976; Washington State University 1977; University of Missouri 1978-81; Cleveland Browns 1982-88; joined Chiefs in 1989. Education: University of Nebraska (B.S. '76). Birthdate: June 14, 1952. Family: Children - one daughter, Taylor Reta (7).

AL SAUNDERS - Assistant Head Coach/Receivers

Regarded as one of the finest offensive minds in pro football with experience as both a head coach and offensive coordinator, Al Saunders begins his seventh season with the Chiefs. Saunders' relentless efforts and "hands on" approach should help the Chiefs young receivers climb to the levels of some of his other star pupils who have included the likes of Charlie Joiner, Kellen Winslow, Wes Chandler, Lynn Swann, and Willie Gault.

The 48-year-old Saunders served as head coach of the San Diego Chargers from the midpoint of the '86 season through the '88 campaign. He guided the club to a 17-22 record, including an 8-7 record in '87, which was the team's first winning season in five years. Under his direction in '87, the Chargers won eight straight games, the club's longest winning streak in 26 seasons. He joined the Chargers in '83 as receivers coach in what was one of the most exiting and prolific pass offenses in NFL history. San Diego led the league in passing yardage in '83 and '85.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Southern California ('70-71), he then coached receivers at Missouri ('72), before heading the offensive backfield at Utah State ('73-75). He was an assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of California from '76-81, leading an offense that set 32 national, conference, and school records. In '82, he served as offensive coordinator at Tennessee, where he tutored receivers Willie Gault and Tim McGee.

Born in London, England, he was only the third foreign-born head coach in NFL history after becoming a naturalized U.S. citizen in '60. A four-year starter, team captain, and Academic All-American as a defensive back at San Jose State ('66-69), Saunders is enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame. As recipient of California's State Graduate Fellowship for Academic Excellence, he was a doctoral candidate in athletic administration and sports management at USC.

Saunders has been recognized in Who's Who in America and was awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award for community leadership and service in '89. A former All-American swimmer and national record holder, Saunders competed in both the '94 and '95 Los Angeles Marathons, as well as the '94 Boston Marathon and has qualified for the 100th running of the Boston event in '96.

Coaching Career: University of Southern California 1970-71; University of Missouri 1972; Utah State University 1973-75; University of California 1976-81; University of Tennessee 1982; San Diego Chargers 1983-88 (head coach 1986-88); joined Chiefs in 1989. Education: Stanford (M.A. '70), San Jose State (B.A., B.S. '69). Birthdate: February 1, 1947, Family: Wife - Karen; Children - sons Bobby (18) and Joey (16), and daughter Korrin (14).

KURT SCHOTTENHEIMER - Defensive Backs

After spending six seasons as Kansas City's special teams coach, Kurt Schottenheimer will oversee the squad's secondary in '95. The 45-year-old Schottenheimer has a wealth of defensive knowledge as a former starting defensive back for the University of Miami, in addition to several prominent defensive coaching stints of the collegiate level. While heading the Chiefs specialty units from ('89-94), Schottenheimer's troops accounted for eight TDs and blocked 22 kicks. The McDonald, Pennsylvania, native was also named the co-winner of the NFL's 1990

Special Teams Coach of the Year Award.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, he served in the same special teams capacity for the Cleveland Brown (87-88). Schottenheimer, the younger brother of Chiefs head coach Marty Schottenheimer, served as Lou Holtz's linebackers coach at Notre Dame ('86) and held the same post under defensive genius Bill Arnsparger at Louisiana State University ('84-85). Prior to serving a one-year appointment at Tulane ('83), he spent five seasons at Michigan State ('78-82), coaching defensive backs his first two years and outside linebackers his last three seasons with the Spartans. Schottenheimer began coaching career as defensive coordinator at William Patterson State College in New Jersey ('74-75) and also coached one season ('77) at Ridgefield Park (N.J.) High School.

Schottenheimer was a JUCO All-America quarterback at Coffeyville (Kan.) Junior College, where he led the nation in passing as a sophomore. He then moved on to the University of Miami (Fla.) where he started at defensive back his final two seasons.

Coaching Career: William Patterson State College 1974-75; Michigan State University 1978-82; Tulane University 1983; Louisiana State University 1984-85; University of Notre Dame 1986; Cleveland Browns 1987-88; joined Chiefs in 1989. Education: University of Miami (B.A. '71). Birthdate: October 1, 1949. Family: Wife - Colleen; Children - two daughters, Steele (12) and Sloane (9).

ART SHELL - Offensive Line

Art Shell, a Hall of Fame tackle and former head coach of the Los Angeles Raiders, joined the Chiefs coaching staff this season. A veteran of 15 NFL seasons as a player and 12 years as a coach, the 49-year-old Shell will share his expertise with Kansas City's offensive line in '95.

During his six seasons as the Raiders head coach ('89-94), he compiled a record of 54-38 and guided his club to three playoff appearances. After taking over the 1-3 Raiders in '89, he led the club to 7-5 mark in his first 12 games as head coach. He captured the AFC West title with a 12-4 record in '90 when he was named Coach-of-the-Year by UPI, The Sporting News, and Football News and also coached the AFC to a win in the Pro Bowl following the '90 campaign. His clubs went 9-7 in '91 and 7-9 in '92, in addition to a 10-6 mark in '93 and a 9-7 record last season.

The Charleston, South Carolina, native joined the Raiders coaching staff in '83 after 15 seasons as one of the greatest offensive tackles in NFL history. After earning two Super Bowl rings (XI, XV) as a player, Shell added a third as a Raider assistant coach (XVIII). An '89 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shell began his pro career as a third-round draft pick of the Oakland Raiders in '68. He played in 207 games, the third-highest total in Raider history (Gene Upshaw-217, Jim Otto-210) including a stretch of 156 straight contests from '68-78. During his 15 pro playing seasons he also made appearances in 23 postseason contests.

A three-time all-conference selection as both an offensive and defensive tackle at Maryland State ('65-67), Shell also earned All-America accolades in '66 and '67, as well as lettering two seasons in basketball.

Coaching Career: Los Angeles Raiders 1983-94 (head coach 1989-94); joined Chiefs in 1995. Education: Maryland State College (B.S. '68). Birthdate: November 26, 1946. Family: Wife - Janice; Children - Arthur III (21) and Christopher (19).

MIKE STOCK - Special Teams

Mike Stock, whose coaching career spans over four decades, begins his first season as the Chiefs special teams coach in '95. The 55-year-old Stock comes to Kansas City after coaching wide receivers at Ohio State the past three seasons ('92-94).

Prior to joining the Buckeyes, the Barberton, Ohio, native coached special teams, receivers, and tight ends for the Cincinnati Bengals ('86-91) and was part of the Bengals Super Bowl XXIII staff. In addition to serving a tour of duty at Notre Dame ('83-85), where he acted as offensive coordinator in '85, Stock was stationed with the USFL's New Jersey Generals in the spring of '83 after completing five years ('78-82) as head coach at Eastern Michigan. From '75-77 Stock held down the offensive coordinator post at Wisconsin after completing stints at Notre Dame ('69-74), Navy ('68) and the University of Buffalo ('66-67).

A two-time team co-captain as a fullback under Ara Parseghian at Northwestern, Stock earned All-Big 10 honors after the '59 and '60 seasons, but a knee injury halted his pro playing career with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL, which prompted his return to Northwestern in a coaching role for one season ('61). After a three years of service in the U.S. Army, Stock returned to the coaching ranks in '65 at Akron (Ohio) High School.

Coaching Career: Northwestern 1961; University of Buffalo 1966-67; Navy 1968; Notre Dame 1969-74, 1983-85; Wisconsin 1975-77; Eastern Michigan (head coach) 1972-82; USFL New Jersey Generals 1983; Cincinnati Bengals 1986-91; Ohio State 1992-94; joined Chiefs in 1995. Education: Northwestern University (B.A. '61). Birthdate: September 1939. Family: Wife - Peggy; Children - Michael (27), Patrick (25), and Cynthia (20).

DARVIN WALLIS - Defensive Assistant/Quality Control

Darvin Wallis, a 24-year coaching veteran in his seventh year with the Chiefs, is responsible for the team's game analysis, including film breakdown, computer data, self-scouting, and analysis of opponents' offenses. He is also responsible for defensive quality control and developmental research studies. The 46-year-old Wallis served in the same capacity for seven years with the Cleveland Browns ('82-88) before coming to Kansas City in '89.

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, the Fort Branch, Indiana, native tutored tight ends and tackles at the University of Mississippi ('80-81), served as offensive line and strength coach at Tulane University ('78-79), and oversaw the offensive front at Adams State College ('76-77) in Alamosa, Colorado. Wallis began his coaching career at Wilcox (Ariz.) High School ('72-75) after playing collegiately as a defensive end at the University of Arizona.

Coaching Career: Adams State College 1976-77; Tulane University 1978-79; University of Mississippi 1980-81; Cleveland Browns 1982-88; joined Chiefs in 1989. Education: Adams State College (M.A. '77), University of Arizona (B.A. '71). Birthdate: February 14, 1949. Family: Wife - Vicky; Children - Darvin, Jr. (12), Tyson (9), and Austin (7).

PLAYER PERSONNEL

MARK HATLEY - Director of Pro Personnel

Mark Hatley begins his ninth season with the Chief and his fifth as Director of Pro Personnel. He joined the club as linebackers coach in '87, then moved to the player scouting department before being promoted to his current role in '91. Hatley's primary focus is the scouting of players with professional experience, in addition to scouting Chiefs opponents during the regular season as well as evaluating talent in the World League. With the era of free agency and the league's salary cap, Hatley's expertise has been invaluable in the procurement of quality players.

Through Hatley's efforts over 30 players are on the '95 roster who were acquired by trade or various forms of free agency.

The 45-year-old Hatley came to Kansas City after a two-year stint with the New Orleans Saints ('84-85) where his duties included scouting and defensive quality control. He also assisted as a secondary coach in '85. Prior to joining the NFL ranks, the Borger, Texas, native spent 11 seasons in the collegiate ranks, coaching at Baylor ('83), Texas Christian ('77-82), Tulsa ('76), and his alma mater of Oklahoma State ('73-75). Before joining the Oklahoma State coaching staff, Hatley served as a linebacker for the Cowboys. Education: Oklahoma State (B.A. '72). Family: Wife - Claudia; Children - Eliza (20).

TERRY BRADWAY- Director of College Scouting

Terry Bradway enters his fourth season as the Chiefs Director of College Scouting. Bradway's primary objective is preparing the club for the annual NFL draft. Through Bradway's efforts, 20 players from the Chiefs past three drafts are still on the team's roster. The 40-year-old Bradway came to Kansas City after spending seven years ('86-92) as a scout with the New York Giants, playing a key role in the Giants personnel department that helped the club earn a victory in Super Bowl XXV.

Prior to joining the Giants, the Atlantic City, New Jersey, native spent three seasons ('83-85) as Assistant Director of Player Personnel for the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, working under Chiefs President/General Manager/CEO Carl Peterson, who at the time served as the Stars President and GM. Bradway also served collegiate stints at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy ('79) and the University of Cincinnati ('78). A former defensive back, Bradway earned three letters at Trenton (N.J.) State and prepped at Holy Spirit H.S. in Absecon, N.J. Education: Glassboro (N.J.) State (M.A. '82). Trenton (N.J.) State (B.A. '78) Family: Wife - Kathleen; Children - Michael (9) and Jennifer (6).

KEN BLAIR - Regional Scout

Ken Blair begins his third season as a scout with the Chiefs and will evaluate college talent in the Southeast this season. Prior to coming to Kansas City, Blair served stints with Denver ('85-92) and in Philadelphia ('83-84). Before entering the pro ranks, the 53-year-old Blair worked as an assistant collegiate coach at Georgia Tech ('74-82), with Carl Peterson and Lynn Stiles at UCLA ('71-73), and his alma mater of Colorado ('63-70), where he was an All-Big Eight tight end. Education: University of Colorado (B.A. '63). Family: Wife - Mary Sue; Children - Mike and Mitch.

CHUCK COOK - Regional Scout

Chuck Cook embarks on his 12th season as a scout with the Chiefs and will scour the South for talent. The Anadulusia, Alabama, native joined the Chiefs in '84 after serving as an offensive assistant with the USFL's Arizona Wranglers ('82-83) and a graduate assistant at the University of Wyoming ('80-81). Cook played both wide receiver and defensive back at Southern Mississippi. His father, Hamp, serves as a scout with the New Orleans Saints. Education: Southern Mississippi (B.A. '80) Family: Wife - Carla.

HERMAN EDWARDS - Pro Scout

Herman Edwards begins his second stint in the Chiefs player personnel department after serving the past three seasons ('92-94) as the club's defensive backs coach. The 41-year-old Monmouth, New Jersey, native first came to Kansas City as the recipient of the team's Minority Coaching Fellowship in '89 and spent the '89-91 seasons as an assistant secondary coach during training camp in addition to his duties as a talent scout. He began his coaching career tutoring defensive backs at San Jose State ('87-89).

A 10-year NFL playing veteran with the Philadelphia Eagles, Edwards was originally signed as a rookie free agent in '77 by then-Eagles Player Personnel Director Carl Peterson. As a starting cornerback from '77 through '85, he played in 135 straight games and still ranks second on the club's all-time interception list with 33. He lettered at San Diego State in '76 after transferring from Cal-Berkley where he was a two-time All-Pac 10 first team selection. Education: San Diego State (B.A. '77). Family: Single.

BILL REES - Regional Scout

Bill Rees begins his second season as an area scout for the Chiefs, and will evaluate talent in the West. The 40-year-old Rees spent 15 years ('79-93) as a member of the UCLA football staff, where he was recognized as one of the nation's top recruiting coordinators after inking 90 first team prep All-Americans. Prior to joining the Bruins, the Wilmette, Ill., native spent three years at Northwestern ('76-78), tutoring defensive backs for one season and offensive backs for two campaigns after earning three letters as a college player at Ohio Wesleyan. Education:

The 36-year-old Winston previously served as an assistant coach at Nevada ('90-93) and San Francisco State ('86-89) in addition to stints at Merritt Junior College and Albany (Cal.) High School. After beginning his player career at Merritt JUCO, he transferred to Westminster College, where he ranked third in the nation in receiving (NAIA), and moved on to San Francisco State after Westminster dropped its program. Education: San Francisco State (B.A. '85). Family: Wife - Claire, Children - a son, Cameron Lamonte, born October of '94.

FOOTBALL STAFF

ANDRE BRUCE - Head Groundskeeper

After serving his apprenticeship under George Toma for 14 years Kansas City native Andre Bruce was elevated to his present position of Head Groundskeeper in March of '90. Bruce and his staff oversee the upkeep of Arrowhead Stadium's grass playing surface which was installed prior to the '94 season. In just its first season, the natural turf at Arrowhead was voted as one of the best playing surfaces in the league by the NFL Players Association '94.

Since '76, Bruce has served the Chiefs and the NFL, including work on 13 Super Bowls and 10 Pro Bowl contests. Bruce began working with the Chiefs in May of '76 shortly after graduating from Central High School in Kansas City, Mo. and is currently pursuing a horticulture degree at Longview Community College. Bruce has two assistants: Scott Martin who joined the Chiefs staff in '79 and Doug Schallenberg who began his work with the grounds crew in '80. Education: Central High School ('76). Family: Wife - Paulette; Children - Andre, Jr. (18) and Corey (9), and Shaun (3).

MIKE DAVIDSON - Equipment Manager

Mike Davidson begins his seventh season as the Chiefs Equipment Manager. He is responsible for outfitting the team's players and coaches as well as the purchase and maintenance of the club's equipment. The 40-year-old Davidson came to Kansas City in '89 after serving as assistant equipment manager for the Cleveland Browns the previous five seasons.

Prior to joining the Browns in '84, the Cleveland native served as a marketing education coordinator at Thomas W. Harvey High School in Painesville, Ohio ('83-84) and as an occupational work adjustment coordinator at Kimpton Middle Schools in Stow, Ohio ('78-83). CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

For the sixth straight year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101 FM. The Chiefs Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, extends throughout a six-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma and California. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live. Respected broadcaster Mitch Hothus handles the play-by-play duties for the second straight year. Hothus, has been the play-by-play voice of Kansas State athletics that past decade. Adding the color analysis is Hall of Fame quarterback Len Dawson, the Chiefs all-time leading passer. Bill Grigsby, who has been on the Chiefs broadcast team since the club's first year in Kansas City, will also provide expert commentary. Bob Gretz, sports director at KCFX, will add pre-game and post-game comments for the sixth straight season.

Pro Career: Undoubtedly one of the finest all-purpose running backs in pro football history . . . Exudes class and professionalism . . . His brilliant 14-year NFL career has Hall of Fame written all over it . . . Excels as a runner, receiver, blocker and leader . . . Considered one of the game's best-ever goal-line and short-yardage runners . . . With 155 more receiving yards in '95, he will become the first player in the 76-year history of the NFL to rush for over 10,000 yards and catch passes for 5,000 yards . . . In the '94 regular season finale against the L.A. Raiders, he became the ninth player in league history to rush for 10,000 yards . . . Stands ninth on the NFL's all-time rushing yardage list with 10,018 yards, while his 2,485 career rushing attempts are the seventh-most ever and his 98 rushing touchdowns place him fourth . . . Owns the fourth spot on the league's all-time touchdowns list with 120, trailing Jerry Rice (139), Jim Brown (126) and Walter Payton (125) . . . Is one of nine NFL players to cross the goal line 100 times . . . Is the leading active rusher in the NFL and second-most prolific TD-scorer among active players . . . Is sixth on the NFL's career combined yardage list with 14,837, needing just 163 more to join Payton (21,803), Tony Dorsett (16,326), Brown (15,459) and Eric Dickerson (15,411) as the only five players in league annals to reach the 15,000-yard plateau . . . Has 522 career pass receptions, tying Pittsburgh's John L. Williams for the second-highest total ever for a running back; Roger Craig leads with 566 . . . Those 522 grabs have been good for 4,845 yards and 21 scores . . . Nearly forgotten during his last four seasons with the Raiders, he has been rejuvenated in Kansas City red-and-gold the past two years . . . Has been the Chiefs most productive offensive player the past two campaigns, leading the team in rushing each season, getting 709 yards in '94 and 764 in '93 . . . Was a Pro Bowl pick in '93 as well as team MVP . . . Has been Kansas City's leading TD scorer each of the past two seasons, recording seven last year and 15 in '93 . . . His 1,473 rushing yards the past two seasons are the seventh-most in the AFC, while his 22 touchdowns are the most . . . His 19 rushing scores in '93-94 are the third-most in the NFL . . . Earned six career Pro Bowl trips, one with the Chiefs in '93 and five with the Raiders in '82 and from '84-87 . . . Was MVP of Super Bowl XVIII when the Raiders upended the Redskins, 38-9 . . . Has rushed for 1,000 yards three times ('83-85) and owns 23 career regular season 100-yard games . . . Also has three 100-yard receiving games . . . Holder of the NFL record for most consecutive games with 100 or more yards rushing with 11 (Oct. 28, 1985 - Sept. 14, 1986) . . . Also possesses the NFL single-season mark for most rushing and receiving yards combined (2,314 in '85) . . . Owns Chiefs record with seven straight games scoring a touchdown (in '93) . . . Was The Sporting News NFL Player of the Year and PFWA NFL MVP in '85 . . . Is the NFL's third-leading rusher during the postseason with 1,216 yards (Franco Harris had 1,556 and Dorsett 1,383) . . . In playoff action, he has 13 total touchdowns and five 100-yard rushing outings . . . Owns Chiefs playoff records for rushing attempts (67), rushing yards (255) and touchdowns (three) . . . Is a threat as a passer, completing 10 of 24 passes for 267 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions (122.8 passer rating) . . . Was a first-round pick (10th overall) of the Raiders in the '82 NFL draft. 1994: Was a vital link in the Chiefs fifth straight playoff season, leading the team in rushing and touchdowns for the second straight year . . . Had 189 carries for 709 yards (12th in AFC) and seven touchdowns (sixth in AFC) . . . Made 42 catches for 349 yards, his highest reception total since '87 (51) and yardage total since '87 (410) . . . Started all 13 games he played in, missing three (Games 10-12) with a knee injury . . . Had his finest game as a Chief in playoff-clinching, 19-9, win over the Raiders (12/24) in L.A., rushing for 132 yards on 33 tries; it was his 23rd regular season century effort, his first since 10/23/88 (Saints, 102) and most since 9/13/87 (Packers, 136) . . . In that game he became the ninth player in league history to rush for 10,000 career yards . . . Had 82 rushing yards vs. Saints (9/4) and 77 vs. Seattle (10/23) . . . Broke off a 36-yard TD run in win over Seattle (10/23), his longest since 11/24/85 (Denver, 61 yards) . . . In playoff loss to Miami (12/31), he had 14 rushes for 64 yards and five grabs for 49 yards. 1993: After being a Chiefs nemesis for 11 seasons, Allen was acquired by Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent on June 9, . . . Quickly adapted to his new home and by season's end he had been named the Chiefs Most Valuable Player by his teammates . . . Also earned a starting spot in the Pro Bowl . . . Named second team All-NFL by College & Pro Football Newsweekly and first team All-AFC by UPI and Pro Football Weekly/PFWA . . . Pro Football Weekly also named him the NFL Comeback Player of the Year . . . Started 10 of 16 regular season games and all three playoff contests . . . Became the first Chief since the AFL-NFL merger in '70 to lead the AFC in touchdowns with 15 . . . The 15 TDs were the second-highest single-season total ever by a Chief (Abner Haynes, 19 in '62) and tied Atlanta's Andre Rison for second-most in the NFL in '93 (Jerry Rice, 16) . . . Was the Chiefs leading rusher with 206 carries for 764 yards (seventh in the AFC) and an NFL-best 12 touchdowns . . . His 12 rushing TDs tied Christian Okoye ('89) for the second-most by a Chief (Haynes, 13 in '62) . . . Was fourth on the club with 34 receptions (most since '88) for 238 yards and three scores (most since '85) . . . Set a Chiefs record by scoring a touchdown in seven straight games; old record was five by four different players . . . Had six games with at least 70 rushing yards, including 91 vs. Denver (9/20) and 85 vs. L.A. Raiders (11/14) . . . Had three rushing TDs at Seattle (12/5) . . . Became a full-time starter vs. Green Bay (11/8), the eighth game of the season . . . Rushed for 191 yards and three touchdowns on 53 carries with seven receptions for 77 yards during the playoffs . . . Had a dazzling 21-yard TD romp for Kansas City's final score in 28-20 comeback playoff win over Houston (1/16/94). At L.A. Raiders (1982-92): Played in 144 regular season games (114 starts) and 10 playoff contests (all starts) with the Raiders after joining the club as the 10th overall selection in the '82 NFL draft . . . Had 2,090 rushes for 8,545 yards and 79 touchdowns with 446 receptions for 4,258 yards and 18 scores . . . Owns Raiders records for career total touchdowns (98), points in a game (24), TDs in a game (four), rushing attempts (career and season), rushing yards (career and season) and career rushing touchdowns . . . From '89-92, he averaged just 95 carries, 391 rushing yards and five TDs per season. 1992: Played in 16 games, primarily as a third-down back . . . JOHN ALT • 76

Tackle Ht: 6-8 Wt: 307

How Acquired: Draft (No. 1b - 1984)

College: Iowa

NFL Experience: 12

Birthdate: May 30, 1962

Birthplace: Stuttgart, Germany

Residence: White Bear Lake, Minnesota

Pro Career: Recognized as one of the finest left tackles in the NFL. Returns for 12th season as a Chief. Only four other offensive linemen in Chiefs history have played as many seasons with the club: Ed Budde (14 seasons), Jim Tyrer (13), Jack Rudnay (13) and Dave Hill (12).

... Earned back-to-back Pro Bowl trips, following '92 and '93 seasons ... Was a first team All-AFC choice from '90-93 ... Was a first team All-NFL choice in '90 and '91 ... Durable performer combines size, strength and intellect as well as any offensive lineman in the league ... Always considered a top-notch pass protector, he is now regarded as a dominant run blocker ... Continually lines up against the NFL's finest pass rushers with unparalleled success ... Had an incredible string of 94 straight starts snapped in '94 when he missed three starts with an ailing back ... Had started all 16 games the five previous seasons ... Has been Kansas City's primary starter at left tackle for the past eight seasons after backing up the position his first three years in the league ... Missed 17 games with back and knee injuries his first five seasons as a pro, but has been sidelined for just three games the past six campaigns ... Has played in more games with Kansas City than all but three other offensive linemen: Tyrer (180), Rudnay (178), and Budde (176), all Chiefs Hall of Famers ... Has started 122 of 151 career games, mostly at left tackle ... Has appeared in a Chiefs record nine playoff games, including eight starts. 1994: Battled a back injury for most of the season, but still started 13 contests and performed in a winning fashion at left tackle ... Missed Games 10-12 with an ailing back, snapping an extraordinary string of 95 consecutive games played and 94 starts in a row ... His 13 games played were his fewest in a non-strike season since '86, when he made just nine appearances ... Was part of an offensive line that allowed just 19 sacks, fewest in team history and third-fewest in the NFL in '94. 1993: Got richly-deserved second trip to the Pro Bowl after playing in the game the year before as an injury replacement ... Was a first team All-AFC choice by Football News ... Enjoyed, perhaps, the finest season of his pro career ... Started all 16 games at left tackle for the fifth year in a row and extended his streak of continuous starts to 85 ... Missed very few snaps, although he was sidelined for part of the Houston game (9/12) with a back injury, a portion of a San Diego outing (10/17) with a knee injury, and part of the Vikings game (12/26) with an ankle injury ... Started all three of the club's playoff contests. 1992: Started all 16 games at left tackle for the fourth year in a row ... Also opened the San Diego playoff game at left tackle ... Made first Pro Bowl appearance as an injury replacement ... Was first Chiefs offensive lineman to play in the game since center Jack Rudnay in '77 ... Was one of three K.C. offensive linemen to start every game ... Missed most of training camp and the first two preseason outings with a knee injury. 1991: Was a first team All-NFL selection by Sports Illustrated and was an All-AFC pick by UPI and Football News ... Started all 16 regular season games and both postseason affairs at left tackle ... Helped Christian Okoye get his second 1,000-yard season ... Part of an offensive front that yielded just 21 sacks, the fewest in the AFC and third-fewest in the NFL. 1990: Was a first team All-NFL selection of The Sporting News, USA Today and Sports Illustrated ... Was an All-AFC selection of UPI for the second straight year ... Started all 16 games at left tackle ... Helped Chiefs become only team in '90 to have two rushers with at least 800 yards (Barry Word had 1,015 and Christian Okoye had 805) ... Offensive line allowed just 22 sacks, the fourth-lowest total in the league. 1989: Earned second team All-AFC honors from AP ... Stayed away from injuries as the team's starter at left tackle in all 16 contests ... Marked the first time in his career he had started all 16 games ... Was a powerful force on a line that generated 132.9 rushing yards per game, the fourth-highest average in the league, and allowed just 23 sacks, the third-lowest number in the league. 1988: Played in 14 games with 13 starts at left tackle ... Missed L.A. Raiders (10/30) and Broncos (11/6) games and did not start vs. Bengals (11/13) because of left knee sprain ... Missed three preseason games after undergoing arthroscopic surgery on left knee on July 29 ... Was used as third tight end in short-yardage and goal-line situations. 1987: Was the club's most productive offensive lineman in '87 until knee injury vs. Cincinnati (12/6) ... Started all nine games he played in ... Underwent right knee surgery in off-season ... Was a full-time starter at left tackle for first time in his career. 1986: Played in the final seven contests after coming off "physically-unable-to-perform" list ... Role was limited to special teams and backup duty at left tackle ... Also played in Wild Card playoff game. 1985: Played in the first 13 games before the disc injury was diagnosed following Week 13 game vs. Seattle (12/1) ... Spent final three games on injured reserve list . . . Started six games in the middle of that season when starter Matt Herkenhoff was injured . . . Replaced Herkenhoff in the first quarter of the Raiders game the fifth week, then started the next six contests. 1984: As a rookie, he alternated with Herkenhoff at left tackle throughout most of the season . . . Played in 15 games and started one . . . Was thrust into the lineup in the second quarter of the opening game of his NFL campaign when Herkenhoff was injured at Pittsburgh (9/2) . . . Played the remainder of the game, then started the second week at Cincinnati (9/9) . . . The only game he didn't see action was Week 14 vs. Denver (9/23) . . . Was the Chiefs second pick of the first round in '84 on a choice obtained in a trade with the L.A. Rams for Gary Green . . . Third offensive lineman selected in that draft and the 21st player overall.

College/Personal: Anchored Iowa's offensive line his final two years as a transformed tight end and became one of the country's top linemen . . . Was a first team All-Big Ten selection by AP and UPI as a senior . . . Earned honorable mention All-America honors from AP . . . First season as an interior lineman was as a junior and he immediately became Hawkeyes' best-graded lineman . . . Was Iowa's starting tight end as a sophomore . . . Outgrew his tight end position, bulking up from 230 pounds as a freshman to 278 by draft time . . . Earned all-state honors in both football and basketball at Columbia Heights (Minn.) High School and was a prep All-America in football . . . Was a tight end, punter and placekicker for football squad . . . Has done charity work for the United Way and the homeless . . . Earned a business degree at Iowa . . . Enjoys fishing, ice fishing and boating . . . Full name: John Michael Alt . . . Married, wife Carolyn, one daughter, Lauren (5) and one son, John (3).

Quarterback Ht: 6-4 Wt: 215

How Acquired: Trade (San Francisco-1994)
College: UCLA
NFL Experience: 11 (2nd with Chiefs)
Birthdate: June 11, 1962
Birthplace: Norristown, Pennsylvania
Residence: Palo Alto, California

Pro Career: Eleven-year veteran quarterback, who has played in a "West Coast" offense the previous six seasons, will vie for the Chiefs starting job with the retirement of Joe Montana . . . Has a strong arm, intelligence and remarkable composure . . . Joined Chiefs on May 2 of '94 in a trade with the San Francisco 49ers . . . Begins his 11th NFL season with the Chiefs, his second with the team, after logging five years with the 49ers ('89-93), two with the Pittsburgh Steelers ('87-88) and two with the Minnesota Vikings ('85-86) . . . Has appeared in 47 career games, including 11 starts, completing 332 of 596 yards (55.7%) for 3,910 yards with 24 touchdowns and 15 interceptions, good for a 78.2 passer rating . . . Since '91 (his last four seasons), he has been accurate on 282 of 420 throws, (an extraordinary 67.1%) for 3,292 yards with 17 TDs and 11 INTs . . . Has four 300-yard passing games in his last six starts, two with Kansas City ('94) and two with San Francisco ('91) . . . Has a 7-4 record as a starter: 0-2 with the Chiefs, 5-1 with the 49ers and 2-1 with the Steelers replacement squad in '87 . . . Shares a Chiefs record with Montana for most pass attempts in a game with 55 . . . Originally entered the NFL as a sixth-round pick (142nd overall) of Minnesota in the '85 draft. 1994: Came to Kansas City in a May 2nd trade with the 49ers for a fourth-round draft pick in '95, and once again served as Joe Montana's backup quarterback . . . Saw action in seven games, including a pair of starts, connecting on 66 of 117 passes (56.4%) for 796 yards with four touchdowns and four interceptions . . . Also had four rushes for -1 yard . . . Started vs. Denver (12/4) and Miami (12/12) when Montana was sidelined with a foot injury, and finished both contests with over 300 yards passing . . . Was 18-of-37 for 323 yards and one touchdown in an overtime loss to Denver . . . Completed 33 of 55 passes for 314 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions in a Monday night setback at Miami . . . The 55 pass attempts tied Montana's team record and the 33 completions were the third-most ever in a Chiefs game . . . Those starts were his first since '91, when he opened six games for San Francisco . . . Got his first TD pass as a Chief with a 32-yard strike to Eric Martin in a win over Seattle (10/23) . . . Was responsible for Kansas City's two longest plays in '94: 62-yard TD pass to Willie Davis vs. Denver (12/4) and a 61-yard aerial to Martin in the same game. At San Francisco (1989-93): From '89-93, he served as a backup to Joe Montana and Steve Young, the two highest-rated quarterbacks in the history of the NFL . . . During his five-year stay with San Francisco, he played in 33 games (six starts), hitting on 220 of 359 passes (61.3%) for 2,558 yards with 14 touchdowns and seven INTs, good for a superb 88.0 passer rating . . . In his six starts, the 49ers had a 5-1 record . . . Was signed by the 49ers as a free agent on June 13 of '89 after being released by Pittsburgh in April of that year. 1993: Saw action in eight games, completing 39 of 61 passes (63.9%) for 416 yards with no touchdowns and one INT . . . Served as a backup to Steve Young, who was the league's highest-rated passer in '93 . . . In the regular season finale vs. Philadelphia (1/3/94), a 37-34 Eagles win, he replaced Young late in the third quarter and engineered two scoring drives while establishing season highs in pass attempts (29), completions (18) and yards (219) . . . In that game he scored his first touchdown since '87 on a one-yard run . . . In San Francisco's 44-3 playoff win over the Giants (1/15/94), he completed both of his pass attempts for 15 yards. 1992: Served as Steve Young's backup, appearing in 15 games, primarily as a holder on place-kicks . . . Completed 36 of 56 passes (64.3%) for 463 yards with two touchdowns and two INTs . . . Relieved Young, who suffered a concussion in the first quarter, at N.Y. Giants (9/6) and tossed a pair of touchdown passes to Tom Rathman . . . Replaced Young in five other games during the regular season . . . Replaced Young (flu) at the beginning of the third series vs. Phoenix (11/1) and hit on 17 of 24 passes for 222 yards with an INT . . . Played in both of San Francisco's playoff contests as a holder. 1991: Enjoyed his finest season as a pro, starting six of nine games . . . Finished the year as the NFL's fourth-highest-rated passer . . . Completed 141 of 237 passes (59.5%) for 1,617 yards with 11 touchdowns and four interceptions, good for an 88.5 passer rating . . . Had a string of three straight games in which he threw three touchdown passes, including a 28-14 victory over the Chiefs (12/14), when he was 24-of-33 for 220 yards . . . Had a pair of 300-yard passing days, getting 306 with a touchdown vs. L.A. Rams (11/25) and a career-high 347 with three scoring passes in a comeback victory over New Orleans (12/1) . . . Named NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Saints . . . Dressed but did not play in six of the first eight weeks . . . Replaced Steve Young (knee injury) in second half at Atlanta (11/3) and started the next six games (49ers were 5-1) . . . Threw a game-winning 15-yard TD pass to John Taylor with 1:08 remaining to lead a come-from-behind win at Seattle (12/8) . . . Suffered a knee injury in the Kansas City game and was replaced by Young. 1990: Did not play in any games as the third-string quarterback behind Joe Montana and Steve Young . . . Did dress five times. 1989: Signed by the 49ers as a free agent on June 13 . . . Saw action in one game, against N.Y. Jets (10/29), completing four of five passes for 62 yards and a touchdown (45 yards to Jerry Rice) . . . Was inactive during the 49ers playoff run to a victory in Super Bowl XXIV. At Pittsburgh (1987-88): Played in five games as a member of the Steelers from '87-88, completing 45 of 109 passes (41.3%) for 548 yards with seven touchdowns and four INTs . . . Originally signed by Pittsburgh on March 25 of '87, was waived and re-signed as replacement player during the '87 strike. 1988: Served as a backup to Bubby Brister and Todd Blackledge . . . Played in two games, attempting 35 passes with 10 completions (28.6%) for 110 yards with one touchdown and two INTs. 1987: Was signed as a free agent on March 25, released on September 7 and re-signed as a replacement player on September 24 . . . Started all three replacements games, completing 34 of 74 passes (45.9%) for 438 yards with five touchdowns and two INTs . . . The Steelers were 2-1 in the three games . . . In first career start vs. Atlanta (10/4), he threw his first TD pass and rushed for his first score . . . Against Indianapolis (10/18), he threw a one-yard TD pass to John Stallworth for the 500th reception of the wide receiver's career. At Minnesota (1985-86): Selected by the Vikings in the sixth round of the '85 draft and appeared in just two games with the club over two seasons . . . Was two-of-11 for eight yards. 1986: Was released by Minnesota on Oct. 4, then re-signed on Nov. 9, before being let go for good on Dec. 9 . . . Attempted one pass, a three-yard completion, in one game (Tampa Bay, 11/30). 1985: Minnesota's sixth-round draft choice saw action in one outing (Philadelphia, 12/1), when he hit on one of 10 passes for five yards.

College/Personal: Finished his college career at UCLA, ranked seventh (is now 10th) on the school's all-time passing yardage list with 2,165 . . . Completed 177 of 315 passes (56.2%) with 12 touchdowns . . . As a senior in '84, he was 136-245 for 1,576 yards and nine touchdowns for a 9-3 Bruins squad that won the Fiesta Bowl and ranked ninth in the nation . . . Missed three games his senior year with an ankle injury . . . Established then-school records with 400 yards in total offense and 399 passing yards in his first college start as a junior vs. BYU (10/1/83); Steve Young posted 324 yards of total offense in that game . . . Won four letters

Pro Career: Pro Bowl cornerback and dangerous kick returner is one of the most exciting players to ever slip on a Chiefs uniform . . . Ventured to his first Pro Bowl following the '94 season, just his third in the NFL . . . Established himself as one of the league's most explosive return men as a rookie, and has now matured into one of the game's most respected cornerbacks . . . Has blazing speed and an amazing ability to make up lost ground to close on the ball . . . Took over Kansas City's starting left cornerback position midway through the '93 season, then became the club's starter at right corner last year . . . Was a nickel back and backup corner during his '92 rookie campaign . . . Has started 36 of 47 games he has played in . . . Has been the team's leader in pass deflections the past three seasons, racking up a total of 42 . . . Has registered 10 interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown, and 207 tackles, good for an impressive average of 69 per season . . . Has returned 81 punts for a lofty 9.5-yard average and two touchdowns (46 and 86 yards) . . . His 81 punt returns are the third-most in Chiefs history (J.T. Smith - 220 & Ed Podolak - 86), while his 769 yards rank second all-time (Smith - 2,322) . . . Also has 11 kickoff returns for a 17.3-yard average . . . Was a consensus all-rookie selection in '92, while also winning the prestigious Bert Bell Trophy as the NFL Rookie of the Year . . . Scored a touchdown the very first time he touched the ball in an NFL game, on a 46-yard punt return . . . Selected by Kansas City in the first round (20th overall) of the '92 draft. 1994: Earned first Pro Bowl trip after stellar third NFL season . . . Was third on the team with 94 tackles, an incredible number for a cornerback, in 16 games (all starts) . . . Picked off two passes and topped team in pass deflections with 15 . . . Had a superb outing on a nationally-televised Sunday night game at Atlanta (9/18), breaking Jeff George's streak of 279 games without an interception with a first-quarter pick that set up Kansas City's first score; also had a career-high 14 tackles and four passes defended in the outing . . . Spent most of the Falcons game on Andre Rison, who had 26 catches in the first two games of the season, but managed just three against Carter . . . Had other interception in big win over Cleveland (11/20) . . . Led team in tackles vs. Houston (12/18) with 11 . . . Returned 16 punts at a 7.8-yard clip . . . Broke off a 42-yard punt return vs. Seattle (11/27), his longest since his rookie season. 1993: Became a full-time starter at right cornerback, starting 11 of 16 games . . . Missed the season finale and all three playoff games after suffering a broken forearm at Minnesota (12/26) . . . Started the first three games of the year at left CB when Albert Lewis was out with a broken forearm, served as a backup the next four contests, then opened the next eight games when Kevin Ross was moved to free safety . . . Was eighth on the club with 58 tackles (43 solos) . . . Added 12 pass deflections (second on team), one interception and one forced fumble . . . Made lone interception of the season in win over Buffalo (11/28) . . . Made at least five tackles in seven games . . . Starred on special teams: returned 27 punts for a 9.1-yard average (sixth in AFC), blocked a PAT and made 10 coverage tackles (fourth on team) . . . Saw action on offense, lining up for three plays as a wide receiver . . . Had one carry for two yards on a reserve vs. Buffalo (11/28). 1992: Excelled as both a cornerback and return man as a rookie . . . Won the Bert Bell Trophy as the NFL Rookie of the Year . . . Also named NFL Rookie of the Year by the Pro Football Writers . . . Earned NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors from AP and Pro Football Weekly; was co-winner by College and Pro Football Newsweekly . . . UPI named him their top AFC rookie . . . Made every all-rookie team . . . Was selected by the Chiefs in the first round of the '92 draft (20th overall) . . . Let everyone know from the outset how electrifying he was by scoring a touchdown the very first time he touched the ball in an NFL game, racing 46 yards with a punt return in the season opener at San Diego (9/6) . . . Also had an 86-yard punt return for a score against the Seahawks (11/22) . . . The 86-yard runback was the second-longest punt return in team history (J.T. Smith, 88 yards, 9/23/79) . . . His two punt return touchdowns tied a Chiefs single-season record (Smith in '79 & '80) . . . His 10.5-yard punt return average placed him fourth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL, while being the Chiefs best since '81 (Smith, 10.6) . . . Was a first team All-AFC choice as a punt returner by UPI . . . Also returned 11 kickoffs for a 17.3-yard average . . . An injury to Albert Lewis gave Carter more playing time on defense than expected, and he responded admirably despite being constantly tested . . . Started nine of 16 games, amassing 55 tackles, a team-leading seven interceptions (one for a TD) and 15 pass deflections (led team) . . . His seven picks were the second-most ever by a Chiefs rookie (Bobby Hunt had eight in '62) and the most by a Chiefs defender since Deron Cherry had seven in '88 . . . The seven INTs also tied for the third-most in the NFL in '92 . . . Had a brilliant 36-yard interception return for a touchdown in playoff-clinching win over Broncos (12/27) . . . Made successful switch from college safety to pro cornerback.

College/Personal: Was a standout free safety and return man at Tennessee, earning first team All-America honors as a senior . . . DERRICK THOMAS • 58
Outside Linebacker Ht: 6-3 Wt: 247

How Acquired: Draft (No. 1 - 1989)

College: Alabama

NFL Experience: 7

Birthdate: January 1, 1967

Birthplace: Miami, Florida

Residence: Independence, Missouri

Pro Career: Now entering his seventh NFL campaign, he is regarded as one of the game's premier defensive players . . . Is coming off his finest NFL season, which earned him a sixth straight Pro Bowl appearance, one for each year in the league . . . All he has done since joining the Chiefs as the fourth overall pick in the '89 draft is venture to six Pro Bowls; be named Chiefs MVP twice ('91 & '94); win the NFL sack crown ('90); set Chiefs records for sacks in a career, season and game; establish an NFL record for sacks in a game (seven); been AFC Defensive Player of the Week on six occasions; and win the league's two most prestigious humanitarian awards ('93 NFL Man of the Year & '95 Byron White Humanitarian Award) . . . His six AFC-NFC Pro Bowls tie the team record of Deron Cherry and Willie Lanier . . . Is just the second two-time winner of the Chiefs MVP Award, joining Art Still ('80 & '84) . . . Returned to a natural outside linebacker spot in '94 after one season at "rushbacker," a linebacker/defensive end hybrid . . . Is the league's finest pass-rushing linebacker . . . Since he entered the league in '89, he leads all NFL defenders with 77 sacks, which is also a Chiefs career record . . . Got his 50th career sack vs. Dallas (10/18/92), reaching that milestone in his 54th game, quicker than any linebacker ever did and faster than all but two players in league history (Reggie White-40 & Mark Gastineau-43) . . . Is the NFL record-holder for most sacks in a game with seven vs. Seattle (11/11/90), breaking the old record of six by San Francisco's Fred Dean (11/13/83) . . . In '90 he became the first Chief to lead the NFL in sacks with 20 . . . His 20 sacks in '90 set a team record and are the fifth-highest, single-season total in league history . . . His 77 sacks have accounted for 591½ yards in losses . . . Has made at least 10 sacks in five of his six NFL campaigns . . . Has three career games with at least four sacks, eight with three or more and 15 with two-plus . . . Has been nearly unstoppable the past five seasons, racking up a league-high 66 sacks, an incredible 28 forced fumbles and 13 fumble recoveries, including three for touchdowns . . . Has perfected the art of ball-stripping as evidenced by his 31 career forced fumbles in the regular season along with four in postseason play . . . Durable performer has missed just one out of a possible 96 career games, and has appeared in 68 consecutive contests . . . 52½ of his 77 career sacks (68.2%) have come at Arrowhead Stadium . . . Career log: 95 games (92 starts), 413 tackles, 77 sacks, 31 forced fumbles, 14 fumble recoveries, one blocked PAT, one tackled punter, three touchdowns and one safety . . . In eight playoff contests (all starts), he has 29 tackles, 7½ sacks (Chiefs playoff record) and four forced fumbles. 1994: Enjoyed the finest season of his distinguished NFL career, earning a sixth straight trip to the Pro Bowl, his sixth as a starter, and his second Chiefs MVP Award . . . Was a second team All-NFL pick by AP . . . Corralled a career-high 86 tackles, 11 sacks, a team-high six forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, 45 quarterback pressures, five passes defended and a safety . . . The 86 tackles were good enough for fourth place on the club . . . Dispelled the myth that he does not perform well on grass by getting nine of his 11 sacks on natural surfaces, including seven at Arrowhead . . . Became the Chiefs all-time sack leader vs. L.A. Raiders (11/16), bypassing Art Still, who had 72½ . . . Best performance was an eight-tackle, three-sack, one-safety outing against San Francisco (9/11); had a fourth sack taken away by a intentional-grounding call . . . Was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts against the 49ers . . . In win over Atlanta (9/18) the next week, he was credited with five stops, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and a sack . . . Had six tackles and a sack in playoff loss at Miami (12/31). 1993: Assumed new "rushbacker" position, a linebacker/defensive end hybrid and played it well enough to land his fifth straight Pro Bowl nod . . . Earned one of pro sports most prestigious awards by being named the Edge NFL Man of the Year, which recognizes both community service and on-field performance . . . Was a second team All-NFL pick by AP and College & Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Named to All-AFC squad by UPI . . . Improved his play against the run as the team allowed just 101.3 rushing yards per game, the club's lowest yield since '71 (95.5) . . . Had a career-low eight sacks as teammate Neil Smith topped the league with 15 . . . Also added 43 tackles, four forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, a team-high 47 quarterback pressures and a blocked PAT . . . Returned his fumble recovery 86 yards for a touchdown at Seattle (12/5) . . . Had three tackles, two sacks and two forced fumbles vs. L.A. Raiders (10/3) . . . Was outstanding in the playoffs, recording 10 tackles, three sacks, and three forced fumbles . . . Racked up three tackles, two sacks, two forced fumbles and deflected a pass in upset win over Houston (1/16/94) in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game. 1992: Selected to start for the AFC in the Pro Bowl for the fourth year in a row . . . Was a first team All-NFL pick by NEA and The Sporting News, and named All-AFC by UPI, Pro Football Weekly and Football News . . . Made the All-Madden Team for the first time as well . . . His 14½ sacks, second-highest total of his career, led the team for the fourth straight year (Neil Smith also had 14½) . . . That total tied for the second-most ever by a Chief, and third-most in AFC/sixth-most in NFL in '92 . . . Also contributed 67 tackles, the sixth-most on the club, a team-leading eight forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries, including one for a touchdown, 27 QB pressures, and two deflected passes . . . Had one four-sack effort (Chargers, 11/8) and two three-sack games (Eagles, 10/11, and Broncos, 12/27) . . . Against San Diego (11/8), he had four sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in the first half alone of a 16-14 victory en route to AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors . . . Put on another brilliant exhibition in the season finale vs. Denver (12/27), when he had five tackles, three sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery for a touchdown; also hit John Elway as he was throwing, forcing an errant pass that was intercepted and returned for another touchdown . . . Had a strong playoff showing at San Diego (1/2/93) with three tackles and 1½ sacks. 1991: Continued impressive run through NFL offenses, earning his third straight Pro Bowl start . . . Named All-NFL by AP, The Sporting News, College and Pro Football Weekly, and Pro Football Weekly . . . Took home unanimous All-AFC honors . . . His 13½ sacks led the club for the third straight year and tied for second in the AFC (with Simon Fletcher and behind William Fuller) and fourth in the NFL (behind Swilling, Fuller and Reggie White) . . . Has a knack for being around the ball as evidenced by his four forced fumbles and four recoveries, including one returned 23 yards for the winning touchdown in a 27-20 victory over the L.A. Rams (11/10) . . . It was his first NFL score . . . Was sixth on the club with a career-high 79 tackles, and second on the team with 43 quarterback pressures; also knocked down two passes . . . Tackled a punter before a kick vs. Denver (11/17) . . . His four-sack, two-forced fumble effort on Buffalo's Jim Kelly (10/7) earned him AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors . . . Made three sacks in tough 24-20 loss to Denver (11/17) . . . Collected a pair of sacks in 19-6 win at Seattle (12/1) . . . Had two sacks and a forced fumble in the playoffs . . . Missed more than half of the Chiefs home playoff victory over the L.A. Raiders (12/28) after experiencing an increased heart rate. He was hospitalized for treatment and observation for the increased heart rate which was diagnosed as atrial fibrillation. He was released from St. Luke's Hospital less than 24 hours after being admitted . . . Returned to action the following week in the club's playoff loss to Buffalo (1/5/92) and added a sack. 1990: Had simply miraculous sophomore NFL season, earning second Pro Bowl appearance and All-NFL recognition . . . Named first team All-NFL by Pro Football Writers Association, AP, Pro Football Weekly, The Sporting News, NEA, College & Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest and first team All-AFC by UPI . . . Led NFL with 20 sacks, a team record and the fifth-highest total in league history . . . Only players with more sacks in a season are Mark Gastineau (22 in '84), Reggie White (21 in '87), Chris Doleman (21 in '89) and Lawrence Taylor (20½ in '86) . . . Established a new NFL record with seven sacks in a game on Seattle's Dave Krieg (11/11), breaking Fred Dean's old mark of six . . . Had eighth sack grasp on final play of game, but Krieg got free and launched a touchdown pass to beat Kansas City, 17-16 . . . Was named AFC Defensive

Player of the Week (10) despite loss . . . Forced a team-leading six fumbles during the season, recovering two . . . Made 63 tackles, including 47 solos . . . THE CHIEFS AMBASSADORS

Players Helping Players and the Community

In 1989 several former players met with the management of the Kansas City Chiefs with the idea of volunteering to work with the team to promote goodwill in the community and to assist in any way they could to help achieve the goal of consistent quality football for the fans of Kansas City. The idea was heartily endorsed by the management and by coach Marty Schottenheimer who actively involved former players while in Cleveland. Since then the Ambassadors have developed into an organization which has been highly successful in achieving its objectives.

The primary purpose of the Ambassadors is four-fold:

1. To support the Kansas City Chiefs football team and organization. This support includes VIP entertainment, public appearances on behalf of the team, assisting the staff in sales and public relations, and visiting suiteholders, tailgate parties, and fan gatherings on Gameday.
2. To assist the current players by helping them become assimilated into the Kansas City area, locate off season employment or employment once their football career is over, and by acting as a liason between them and alumni. They also support and encourage the players at home and on the road as only another player can.
3. To provide an opportunity for former Chiefs players to remain actively involved with the Chiefs.
4. To serve as a goodwill extension of the Chiefs by being involved with the community, charities, and the fans. Current events include a charity golf tournament, numerous community speaking engagements, development of a fund to assist former players suffering financial hardship, and assisting current players in their charitable endeavors.

The Ambassadors have grown into a close knit group which is recognized throughout the NFL as an innovative and worthy cause for former players. Numerous teams have plans to develop a similar program. The program in Kansas City continues to grow and exciting improvements are underway.

Vice President – Ed Lothamer

Vice President – Ted McKnight

Treasurer – Larry Marshall

CHIEFS HISTORY

1959 — Lamar Hunt established and organized the American Football League with six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis (Buffalo and Boston were added and Oakland replaced Minneapolis). "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Boston's Billy Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL." An unknown assistant at Miami (Florida), Hank Stram, was hired by Hunt to coach the club.

1960 — For their inaugural season in the Cotton Bowl, the Texans had a strong home-state identity with quarterback Cotton Davidson (Baylor), fullback Jack Spikes (Texas Christian) and running back Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league in rushing with 875 yards and touchdowns with nine. The Texans had a flashy, high scoring club, and only three close losses kept them from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted E.J. Holub, described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers — Jerry Mays, Fred Arbanas and Jim Tyrer.

1962 — Stram brought in quarterback Len Dawson, who spent six uneventful years in the NFL, to quarterback the club. Another key addition was Kansas running back Curtis McClinton. Haynes enjoyed his finest season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 touchdowns. The Texans clinched the Western Division championship in November and finished with an 11-3 record. AFL writers voted Dawson, who threw 29 touchdown passes, player of the year, and Stram coach of the year. Dallas won the AFL Championship on December 23 when Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory over the Houston Oilers.

1963 — On May 14, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City and renaming it the Chiefs. H. Roe Bartle, Kansas City's mayor nicknamed "Chief," promised to enlarge Municipal Stadium and guaranteed Hunt three times as many season ticket sales as the Texans had in Dallas. Rookie Stone Johnson suffered a fatal injury in a preseason game and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory over Denver, but managed just one win and two ties in its next nine games. Three highly-touted rookies, Buck Buchanan, Ed Budde and Bobby Bell, became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team.

1964 — The Chiefs struggled to a 7-7 record as many of the team's best players, including E.J. Holub, Fred Arbanas and Johnny Robinson, missed several games with injuries. An average of just 18,126 fans attended each home game, prompting discussion at the AFL owners' meeting about the Chiefs future in Kansas City.

1965 — The Chiefs made Kansas star Gale Sayers their first-round draft pick, but lost him in a bidding war with the Chicago Bears. The Chiefs were able to nab wide receiver Otis Taylor from Prairie View, while Mack Lee Hill, a virtually unknown free agent running back, muscled his way into the starting lineup. In a relatively routine knee surgery late in the season, Hill died on the operating table. The club finished with a 7-5-2 record with three losses by a field goal or less.

1966 — The Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy winner Mike Garrett from USC, even though he was drafted by his hometown Los Angeles Rams of the NFL. On August 23, the Chiefs and Chicago Bears played a preseason game in the first contest between AFL and NFL teams. The Chiefs throttled the Bears, 66-24, at Municipal Stadium. A crowd of 43,885, the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City, turned out for the home opener against the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but, after the contest, Stram and Buffalo head coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got kicker Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Garrett earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors, rushing for 801 yards with a lofty 5.5 yards-per-carry average. Dawson led the league in passing as the Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland for the Western Division title.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs dominated the Bills in Buffalo, 31-7, on New Year's Day to win the franchise's second AFL crown and a place in the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. On January 15 at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers. The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10. The Chiefs looked to the draft to strengthen their defense and found a pair of linebacking gems in Willie Lanier from Morgan State and Jim Lynch from Notre Dame. The club's special teams also got a boost with the addition of kicker Jan Stenerud and return man Noland (Super Gnat) Smith. Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. Later in the year, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of a sports complex. Injuries again hit the club hard as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

1968 — Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time as the Chiefs finished the year with a 12-2 record and a tie with the Raiders for the Western Division championship. In the league's title game, Oakland easily defeated Kansas City, 41-6, to advance to the AFL Championship Game against the New York Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs opened the season with impressive wins over San Diego and Boston, but lost Dawson with a knee injury. The next week, backup Jack Lee went down with a broken ankle, leaving the team's most crucial position in the hands of two-year pro Mike Livingston, who engineered a seven-game win streak. Two months into the campaign, Dawson returned, helping the Chiefs to an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland, who was 12-1-1. In the first round of the playoffs, Kansas City rode its dominating defense en route to a 13-6 win over the Super Bowl champion New York Jets, while Oakland pounded Houston, 56-7.

1970 — On January 4, the Chiefs defeated the Raiders, 17-7, to capture the AFL crown. It was the final game in AFL history, as the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions. The biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs became World Champions by turning back the Minnesota Vikings, by a score of 23-7, in Super Bowl IV. The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the America Football League, and wore patches on their jerseys saying "AFL-10," which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The following season would see the AFL merge with the NFL. Oddsmakers established the Vikings as two-touchdown favorites, yet the Chiefs used three Stenerud field goals and a Garrett touchdown run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard touchdown pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory. Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite injuries to key players and the trade of Garrett to the Chargers, the Chiefs finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, but did not qualify for the playoffs.

1971 — Taylor led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,110 and Ed Podolak became the team's top rusher. The linebacking trio of Lanier, Bell and Lynch was the league's best. In the season's next-to-last game with the Raiders, a late field goal by Stenerud gave the Chiefs a 16-14 victory and a Western Division title. The team finished with a 10-3-1 mark, one-and-a-half games ahead of Oakland. Kansas City and Miami hooked up for one of pro football's most memorable games on Christmas Day in the first round of the playoffs. The Eastern Division champion Dolphins won a dramatic double-overtime thriller, 27-24, in the longest game in NFL history. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 yards on rushes, receptions and returns. It would be the last game played in Municipal Stadium.

1972 — Chiefs founder Lamar Hunt became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29 in Canton, Ohio. All pro-safety Johnny Robinson retires and Dawson ends speculation about his retirement by signing a two-year contract. The Chiefs open play in Arrowhead Stadium, one of the most magnificent facilities in pro sports. The largest crowd in Chiefs history, 82,094, watched the home team defeat the Raiders, 27-14, on November 5. The Chiefs got off to a 5-3 start, then lost three straight, and ended the year with an 8-6 record and out of playoff contention.

1973 — The defense remained solid but the offense struggled as Dawson was hurt for much of the season. Livingston led the club into first place in late November, but a pair of losses and a tie, gave the team its second straight second-place finish.

1974 — The Chiefs age was beginning to show. Several of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, Tyrer was 35, Bell, Buchanan and Budde were 34, Hill was 33, and Taylor was 32. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was Emmitt Thomas' league-leading 12 interceptions. Bell, and eight-time all-pro, concluded his playing career.

1975 — Paul Wiggin, an assistant coach with the San Francisco 49ers, replaced Stram as the team's head coach, and directed the Chiefs to four wins in his first five games. The high point of the season was a 34-31 upset of the Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football. Injuries crippled the team, leading to a second straight 5-9 finish. Dawson, the top passer in Chiefs history, announced his retirement after 14 memorable seasons with the franchise. After eight all-pro seasons, Buchanan also finished his last year of play.

1976 — After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starting quarterback. Even though he played well, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record.

1977 — The Chiefs suffered their worst season ever, winning just twice. Tom Bettis replaced Wiggin at midseason as the team's head coach, but was able to win just once in seven tries. The heart and soul of the Chiefs defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, a pair of 11-year veterans, retired after the season's end.

1978 — Marv Levy, the former head coach of the Canadian Football League's Montreal Alouettes, was named head coach. His first four draft picks were defensive players, including standouts defensive end Art Still of Kentucky and linebacker Gary Spani of Kansas State. Levy installed the Wing-T as his offense. They had the second-most productive ground game in the league and a record five different runners had 100-yard games, including Tony Reed, the team's first 1,000-yard back in 11 years. The team showed signs of improvement, and ended their first 16-game regular season with a 4-12 mark.

1979 — With the second overall pick in the draft, the team landed Colorado State defensive end Mike Bell, a pass rush specialist and perfect complement for Still. Clemson quarterback Steve Fuller was also chosen in the first round by the Chiefs, and by midseason, he had replaced Livingston. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs improved from a 1-3 start to finish 7-9.

1980 — In a then-controversial move, the Chiefs released Stenerud, the club's all-time leading scorer, in favor of journeyman Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times himself by eight different teams. Despite injuries to key players, the Chiefs made steady improvement. The team came back from an 0-4 start to finish 8-8. The defense came of age with Still, Spani, safety Gary Barbaro and cornerback Gary Green playing major roles. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, little-known Bill Kenney took over and led the club to two victories in the final three weeks.

1981 — Kenney remained at quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers in Pittsburgh. The Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before dropping three straight games in December. A season-ending victory over the Vikings guaranteed the Chiefs their first winning record since 1973. Rookie running back Joe Delaney, a second-round pick from Northwest Louisiana rushed for a then club-record 1,121 yards.

1982 — The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before the players' strike began. The walkout would not be settled until mid-November, and the Chiefs dropped the first four games following the strike's end. Victories in two of the season's final three games left the club with a 3-6 record.

1983 — Tragedy struck the club on June 29, when Delaney, the team's young star running back, drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. The next day, linebacker Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. John Mackovic, in his first season as the club's head coach, had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney as the running game suffered. Kenney was coming of age, throwing for 4,348 yards, a Chiefs record and then the fourth-highest total in NFL history. His primary target was wide receiver Carlos Carson, who hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying offense, the final result was a 6-10 finish.

1984 — The Chiefs used their two first-round draft picks to bolster their lines, picking Pitt All-America Bill Maas then Iowa's huge tackle John Alt. Maas had an immediate impact and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Todd Blackledge, a first-round pick the previous season, opened the first six contests and had the club 3-3. Inconsistency the rest of the season saw the team conclude the year with an 8-8 mark.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start, winning three of their first four games. One of the wins, a 28-7 drubbing of the Seattle Seahawks on September 29, saw free safety Deron Cherry tie an NFL record with four interceptions. That would be one of the few remaining bright spots in a 6-10 season.

1986 — Linebacker Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2. The pieces started coming together for Mackovic, who directed the club to a 7-3 record 10 weeks into the season. The club's defense and special teams were especially effective. Three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy, though. A 37-0 win over the Broncos at Arrowhead and the team's first ever win at L.A. Memorial Coliseum, a 20-17 squeaker over the Raiders, put the 9-6 Chiefs in position to reach the playoffs. A December 21 date in Pittsburgh was all that stood in their way. Despite being outgained 515 yards to 171, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came from the special teams. That earned the club an AFC Wild Card berth, the club's first playoff appearance in 15 years. On December 28 at Giants Stadium, the Jets defeated the upstart Chiefs, 35-15.

1987 — Quarterback Len Dawson was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8 in Canton, just a few miles from his hometown of Alliance, Ohio. Special teams coordinator Frank Gansz was promoted to head coach, and he quickly used the draft to solve the Chiefs running woes by selecting nimble Paul Palmer of Temple in the first round and powerful Enugu, Nigeria, native Christian Okoye from tiny Azusa Pacific in the second. Both rookies made a splash in the season-opening win over the Chargers as Palmer returned a kickoff for a touchdown and Okoye dashed for 105 yards. The Chiefs suffered a setback at Seattle the following week, just before another players' strike took place. NFL teams put together "replacement" squads, mostly consisting of players cut in training camp. The Chiefs version lost all three games, and by the time the strike was finished, the team stood 1-4. Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game skid. Kansas City won three of its last five for a 4-11 mark.

1988 — Defensive end Neil Smith of Nebraska became the team's first-round pick after the club traded its second-round choice to the Detroit Lions in order to move one place up in the first round. For the second straight season, the Chiefs were able to win just four times. Twelve-year veteran Steve DeBerg, acquired in an offseason trade with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, became the club's starting quarterback. On December 19, one day after the season's end, Carl Peterson took over as the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer.

1989 — Marty Schottenheimer, who directed the Cleveland Browns to two AFC Championship Game appearances, became the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24. With the fourth overall pick in the draft, the team selected Butkus Award winner Derrick Thomas, Alabama's All-America linebacker. The team started slow, winning three of its first eight games. DeBerg, Ron Jaworski, and Steve Pelluer each took turns as the team's starting quarterback. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs one-half game shy of a playoff berth. The 8-7-1 record was good for second place in the division. Okoye set a club record and became the first Chief to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — Defensive tackle Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4. The Chiefs got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six games, before tearing up the league in the home stretch, winning six of its last seven outings. The team's 11-5 record was the club's best since the 1969 Super Bowl season and advanced the team to the playoffs for just the second time since 1971. Free agent running back Barry Word topped the team with 1,015 yards, but the unquestioned leader on offense was DeBerg, who tossed 23 touchdown passes with just four interceptions. Kansas City led the NFL with 60 sacks, including 20 by Thomas, the NFL's sack king. An NFL-record seven of Thomas' sacks came on November 11 against Seattle, a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-season touchdown by future Chief Dave Krieg. That loss would bring on the furious streak run.

1991 — On January 5 at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami, the Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss to the Dolphins in the AFC First Round Playoff tilt. On July 27, Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs enjoyed another strong 10-6 regular season. The home portion of the schedule was highlighted by a pair of prime-time Monday night affairs. On October 7, the Chiefs toppled the defending AFC Champion Bills, 33-6, in the club's first home Monday night game in eight years. Three weeks later, the Chiefs tallied a thrilling come-from-behind win over the Raiders in front of a national audience. On December 28, the Chiefs play host to the Raiders in the first playoff game ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs posted their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 decision over the Raiders as Kansas City forced six Los Angeles turnovers.

1992 — On January 5, the Chiefs visited Buffalo for an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup. The Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs in a 37-14 setback that propelled Buffalo toward the Super Bowl. A melancholy summer awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 22, and Hall of Famer Buck Buchanan on July 16. Six-time Pro Bowl safety Deron Cherry, owner of 50 career interceptions, announced his retirement in July. The Chiefs battle through an injury-riddled season, during which a playoff berth never seemed certain. On the regular season's final Sunday, the Chiefs faced the Broncos in a game that would send the winner into the playoffs. The Chiefs defense tallied three touchdowns and "Plan B" signee Dave Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as the Chiefs buried the Broncos, 42-20. First-round draft pick Dale Carter of Tennessee is named the AFC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

1993 — On January 2 in San Diego, the Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as the Chargers posted a 17-0 victory. The Chiefs spent the off-season retooling their offense. On April 20, the Chiefs traded for quarterback Joe Montana, who directed the San Francisco 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. The Chiefs swapped their first-round pick in the '93 draft to the 49ers in exchange for Montana, safety David Whitmore and San Francisco's third-round pick in '94. Kansas City wasn't done loading up the offense. On June 9 the club signed unrestricted free agent running back Marcus Allen, a certain Hall of Famer and the MVP of Super Bowl XVIII. The additions payed off as the Chiefs went 11-5, won their first AFC West title since '71 and appeared in the AFC Championship Game.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the NFL's all-time leading passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a first-round playoff win over Pittsburgh on Jan. 8. The Chiefs trailed the Steelers, 17-10, entering the fourth quarter, and then, 24-17, as the two-minute warning sounded. On fourth-and-goal from the seven, Montana fired a game-tying TD pass to wide receiver Tim Barnett. In overtime, kicker Nick Lowery booted a 32-yard field goal as Arrowhead erupted. On Jan. 16, the Chiefs traveled to Houston, where the Oilers sat poised for their 12th straight win. The heavily-favored Oilers opened up a 13-7, fourth-quarter lead, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind. First, he hit wide receiver J.J. Birden for an 11-yard TD, then he found wide receiver Willie Davis open in the end zone from 18 yards out. Allen nailed the game shut with a 21-yard TD dash and the Chiefs found themselves on the favorable side of a 28-20 decision. The Chiefs playoff journey ended in Buffalo on Jan. 23 as the Bills won their fourth straight AFC title game by a score of 30-13. The Chiefs added cornerback Mark Collins and linebacker George Jamison through free agency and quarterback Steve Bono and safety William White through trades. Also new at Arrowhead in '94 was a grass playing surface, the first ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs start the year with three straight wins, but find themselves 8-7 with their playoff hopes in jeopardy. In the do-or-die season finale at the L.A. Coliseum, Allen had his finest game as a Chief, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. On New Year's Eve, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs, dropping a 27-17 decision at Miami.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Texans 20, Oilers 17

(Double Overtime)

December 23, 1962

Jeppesen Stadium, Houston (37,981)

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's Texans/Chiefs.

Following second place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West championship in 1962. Dallas finished 11-3, a full four games in front, and was matched with the Houston Oilers, also 11-3, who had won the AFL title in 1960 and '61 over the Los Angeles, then San Diego Chargers.

The Texans, paced by a pair of touchdowns from Abner Haynes, took a 17-0 halftime advantage. Haynes scored first on a 28-yard pass from Len Dawson and then on a two-yard run after Tommy Brooker had given Dallas a 3-0 first-quarter advantage with a 16-yard field goal.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda, then a "young" 35-year-old, passed 15 yards to Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick to the clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, Dallas defensive end Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson then passed to Jack Spikes for 10 yards; Spikes, the game's most valuable player, then ran for 19 and the Texans were in field goal range. At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Miami Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in 1971.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

January 1, 1967

War Memorial Stadium, Buffalo (42,080)

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff. Jerrel Wilson recovered a Bills fumble on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, Len Dawson passed 29 yards to Fred Arbanas for the first touchdown and a 7-0 Kansas City lead.

Buffalo, though, tied the game near the end of the opening period when Jack Kemp hit Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play. Few thought it would be the Bills final score of the day.

The Chiefs defense stiffened and Dawson led the offense to 10 second-quarter points. Otis Taylor caught a 29-yard touchdown pass and Mike Mercer added a 32-yard field goal, aided by a 72-yard pass interception by Johnny Robinson.

Mike Garrett then applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs by scoring on runs of one and 18 yards. Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10

January 15, 1967

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (63,036)

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers.

Vince Lombardi's Packers, one of the great pro football teams of all time, won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. But the Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring when Bart Starr passed 37 yards to Max McGee, McGee making a remarkable one-handed catch for the touchdown. Len Dawson tied the game for the Chiefs when he passed to Curtis McClinton for a second period touchdown. The Packers then went back on top, 14-7, before Mike Mercer kicked a 31-yard field goal just before the half ended.

The Chiefs momentum carried over into the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play, one that doomed the underdog Chiefs, unfolded when Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned all the way to the Chiefs 5-yard line, where Elijah Pitts ran for a third Green Bay touchdown and an insurmountable 21-10 lead.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7

January 4, 1970

Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum (54,544)

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the only three-time AFL champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played their Western Division rivals, the Oakland Raiders, for the league's last title. Oakland, which had won the AFL West and held a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, went down to a 17-7 defeat.

The contest, unlike other Raiders-Chiefs matchups, was marked by turnovers. The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece, Oakland's on a three-yard run by Charlie Smith, Kansas City responding with a one-yard plunge by Wendell Hayes after Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to Otis Taylor and 41 yards to Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, George Blanda twice missed field goal attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City mounted a drive from its own 2-yard line, the field position a result of a fumble which luckily was recovered before it bounded into the end zone. Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass and run play. Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass in the left flat and then scored the go-ahead touchdown five plays later.

At this point the game became a defensive struggle. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of Aaron Brown, Buck Buchanan, Curley Culp and Jerry Mays, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders quarterback Daryle Lamonica. But the turnovers which would plague both teams were only beginning.

In the fourth quarter, turnovers gave Oakland the football three times in Kansas City territory. Three times the Chiefs responded with interceptions, one each by Jim Marsalis, Jim Kearney and Emmitt Thomas. Thomas' steal was his second of the day and covered 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line. Jan Stenerud's field goal provided a 17-7 lead and a return to the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7

January 11, 1970

Tulane Stadium, New Orleans (80,562)

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the world championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the New York Jets and Oakland in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the outstanding team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in 1970, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession.

The Chiefs took an early lead when Jan Stenerud kicked a 48-yard first quarter field goal. Stenerud's kick remains a Super Bowl record. He then followed with field goals of 32 and 25 yards for a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when the Vikings Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Len Dawson handed off to Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for the touchdown. The Chiefs held a 16-0 halftime lead, stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Otis Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season.

Dawson hit Taylor on a short hitch pattern, but when Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, highstepping his way to a 46-yard touchdown. After three quarters, the Chiefs again held a 16-point lead.

As was so often the case in 1969, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. Middle linebacker Willie Lanier picked off a Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. In the game's closing minutes, Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13

January 23, 1994

Rich Stadium (76,642)

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to win the game, and the 229 rushing yards the Bills put up was all the explanation needed in 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback. The Chiefs were playing in their first ever AFC title game, while the Bills were making it four straight.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, RB Thurman Thomas would start to get on track. His easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead, but a pair of field goals by K Nick Lowery, cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.

The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and two Steve Christie field goals. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by QB Joe Montana slipped through the hands of RB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills led 20-6 at the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 rushing yards.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays in, Montana suffered a concussion and was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon. With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead down to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. Buffalo answered with an 18-yard TD run by, who else, Thurman Thomas.

The Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), but allowed Thomas to gain 186 of the team's 229 rushing yards. Before exiting, Montana was nine-of-23 for 125 yards and one INT, while QB Dave Krieg was 16-of-29 for 125 yards and one INT. TE Keith Cash was again the team's receiving leader with six catches for 87 yards. DE Neil Smith and S Kevin Ross each contributed 11 tackles.

CHIEFS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

LAMAR HUNT, AFL & Chiefs Founder, 1960-present.

Inducted in 1972.

Founded the American Football League in 1960 with his Dallas Texans franchise . . . Became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1972 . . . Described during his induction ceremonies as the "architect, designer and builder of an impossible dream" . . . Serves as the president of the American Football Conference . . . Since 1984, the AFC championship game trophy has carried his name . . . Has seen the Chiefs win three AFL titles and a Super Bowl trophy . . . Was born August 2, 1932, in El Dorado, Arkansas . . . Graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1956 with a B.S. in geology . . . Was a reserve end on SMU's football team . . . He and his wife, Norma, reside in Dallas and have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharon, Clark and Daniel.

BOBBY BELL, Linebacker, 6-4, 225, 1963-74.

Inducted in 1983.

Became the first Chiefs player to be enshrined in the Hall when he was chosen in the Class of 1983 . . . Some have called him the greatest outside linebacker to play the game . . . Superb athlete began his pro career as a defensive end, because Chiefs needed help at that position when he was drafted in the seventh round in 1963 . . . Earned All-AFL or All-AFC honors for eight consecutive years . . . During that span he starred on two AFL Championship teams, played in Super Bowls I and IV, and was named to the AFL all-decade team in 1969 . . . Intercepted 26 passes and recovered 15 fumbles (tying Willie Lanier and Deron Cherry for Kansas City record) . . . Born June 17, 1940 in Shelby, North Carolina . . . Was an all-state quarterback at Cleveland High School in Shelby . . . Was the Outland Trophy winner as college football's outstanding lineman as a senior in 1962 at Minnesota . . . Played on College All-Star team that defeated the Packers in 1963 . . . Inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in '94 . . . Resides in Kansas City where he does marketing for Factory Motor Parts.

WILLIE LANIER, Middle Linebacker, 6-1, 245, 1967-77.

Inducted in 1986.

As part of the Hall's Class of 1986, he became the second Chiefs player to be enshrined in Canton . . . Named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in '94 . . . Chiefs starting middle linebacker for 11 years, he possessed a ferocious tackling style that made him a feared run-stopper . . . Also had the speed and agility that helped him grab 27 career interceptions, good for the sixth-most ever by a Chief . . . His 15 fumble recoveries tie Bobby Bell and Deron Cherry for the most ever by a Chiefs defender . . . A second-round draft choice in 1967, he missed just five games in his 11 NFL campaigns . . . Played in two AFL All-Star games and five AFC-NFC Pro Bowls . . . Helped Chiefs to their only World Championship, a Super Bowl IV victory over Minnesota . . . Born August 21, 1945 in Clover, Virginia . . . Attended Maggie L. Walker High School in Richmond, Virginia . . . Was a two-time small college All-America pick at Morgan State . . . Named Tangerine Bowl MVP . . . Graduated from Morgan State in 1967 with a B.S. in business administration . . . Lives in Richmond, where he is vice president at First Wheat Securities.

LEN DAWSON, Quarterback, 6-0, 190, 1962-75.

Inducted in 1987.

Heart and sole of Texans/Chiefs franchise during his illustrious career . . . During his tenure as the team's field general, he helped make the Chiefs one of pro football's premier teams and wound up among the elite passers in the game's history . . . Under his guidance, the Chiefs were perennial contenders and won AFL Championships in 1962, 1966 and 1969 . . . Was MVP of Super Bowl IV when he directed Kansas City to a win over heavily-favored Minnesota . . . Won AFL passing titles four times and still holds Chiefs career marks for pass rating, attempts, completions, completion percentage, passing yards and touchdowns . . . Started pro career with the Steelers, as a first-round pick in '56, then landed with the Browns before ending up with the Texans . . . Born June 20, 1935 in Alliance, Ohio . . . Attended Alliance High School . . . Led Big 10 in passing and total offense for three seasons at Purdue . . . Does play-by-play on Chiefs Radio, hosts "Inside the NFL" on HBO, and is the sports anchor at KMBC-TV in Kansas City.

BUCK BUCHANAN, Defensive Tackle, 6-7, 275, 1963-75.
Inducted in 1990.

Became third member of feared Kansas City defense to enter the Hall . . . The first overall selection in the 1963 AFL draft, he became the prototype for future pro defensive linemen . . . Combined perfect size with outstanding strength and deceptive speed . . . Helped Kansas City win two AFL crowns and their only Super Bowl in 1970 . . . Had an eight-year stretch where he either went to the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl . . . Was a unanimous All-AFL pick from 1966-69 . . . His teammates named him the Chiefs MVP in 1965 and 1967 . . . Born September 10, 1940 in Gainesville, Alabama . . . Was captain of both football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham . . . Played tackle on both sides of the ball at Grambling for Eddie Robinson, who called him "the finest tackle I have ever seen" . . . Owned All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City . . . Died July 16, 1992.

JAN STENERUD, Placekicker, 6-2, 190, 1967-79.
Inducted in 1991.

The first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Hall and the fifth Chiefs player to make it to Canton . . . Regarded by many as the best placekicker in pro football history . . . Named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in '94 . . . Played 19 NFL seasons: Kansas City 1967-79; Green Bay 1980-83; and Minnesota 1984-85 . . . Owns NFL record for most career field goals made with 373 and is second to George Blanda on the league's all-time scoring list with 1,699 points . . . Still owns or shares 9 Chiefs records, including career records for field goals attempted (436) and consecutive games played (186) . . . Hit a 48-yard field goal in Super Bowl IV victory . . . Was selected by Chiefs in third round of '66 AFL "red shirt" draft . . . Attended Montana State on a skiing scholarship . . . A native of Fetsund, Norway . . . Is now director of business development for Howard Needles Tammen & Bergendoff, a Kansas City architectural firm.

MACK LEE HILL AWARD

and quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

The 1994 winner of the award was wide receiver Lake Dawson, who made an immediate impact on the Chiefs offense after joining the club as a third-round draft pick. He started six of 12 games, finishing the year with 37 catches, fifth-most on the team, 537 yards, third-most, and a pair of touchdowns. He became the first rookie in 13 years to have a 100-yard receiving day when he caught five passes for 101 yards vs. Houston. He was a three-year starter at Notre Dame, where his 80 career receptions rank seventh in school history.

Each year since 1966, the Chiefs veteran players have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player, who, as the inscription on the trophy reads — "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill . . . the man with the giant heart

FAN-TASTIC

- The Chiefs have sold out 34 straight games, including the playoffs.
- Kansas City averaged 76,734 fans in '94, the most in team history.
- That average attendance was first in the NFL last season.
- The Chiefs went over the 600,000 mark in total attendance for the second straight season, attracting 613,870 patrons for the eight regular season home games.
- The Chiefs have attracted over 560,000 fans (70,000 average) in each of the past five seasons.
- The Chiefs cut off season-ticket sales at 70,000, giving the team its largest season-ticket base in over 20 years.
- In '94 the Chiefs drew four of the 10 largest crowds in team history: San Francisco 49ers (79,907, 2nd); Seattle Seahawks (78,847, 6th); Los Angeles Raiders (78,709, 7th) and Los Angeles Rams (78,184, 10th).
- The Chiefs (76,226) and Buffalo Bills (76,448) are the only two teams in the NFL to average over 75,000 fans per game in '93-94.
- The Chiefs combined home and road attendance of 1,157,992 was the highest in the league last year.

RECENTLY RETIRED

JOE MONTANA • 19
Quarterback Ht: 6-2 Wt: 205

How Acquired: Trade (San Francisco - 1993)
College: Notre Dame
NFL Experience: 16 (2 with Chiefs)
Birthdate: June 11, 1956
Birthplace: New Eagle, Pennsylvania
Residence: Atherton, California

Pro Career: All-time great announced his retirement from professional football on April 18, 1995 . . . One of the few modern-day sports personalities that can truly be labeled a legend . . . Spent two seasons in Kansas City ('93-'94) after spending 14 years in San Francisco with the 49ers ('79-'92) . . . Returned to the field full-time in '93 with the Chiefs after playing just one half of one game the previous two seasons . . . On April 20, 1993, the Chiefs acquired the three-time Super Bowl Most Valuable Player in a trade with San Francisco . . . Kansas City got Montana, safety David Whitmore and a third-round pick in the '94 draft (wide receiver Lake Dawson) in exchange for a first-round pick in the '93 draft (49ers traded the pick to Cardinals) . . . Made a storied comeback in the season finale of the '92 season and his '93 campaign with the Chiefs after nearly missing two full campaigns with an elbow injury . . . Had an unequalled desire to succeed and to perform the near impossible . . . From his college days at Notre Dame, through his 16 seasons in the NFL, Montana put together one of the most remarkable careers in football history . . . Guided the 49ers to the first four of their NFL record five Super Bowl victories . . . Was named the Super Bowl MVP an unprecedented three times, in the games designated with the Roman numerals XVI, XIX and XXIV . . . Played brilliantly in each of the four Super Bowls he appeared in, completing 66.4% of his passes for an average of 286 yards per game with 11 total touchdowns and no interceptions . . . As recently as '90, he was named the NFL's MVP and was honored as Sports Illustrated's Sportsman of the Year . . . Also won the '89 NFL MVP Award after directing San Francisco to its fourth NFL title . . . Directed his team to the playoffs 12 times . . . Led his club into the playoffs all 10 seasons he started at least 10 games . . . Was voted to the Pro Bowl eight times, more than any quarterback in league history, earning the honor following the '81, '83, '84, '85, '87, '89, '90 and '93 seasons . . . Was the first Chiefs quarterback to earn Pro Bowl recognition since Bill Kenney in '83 . . . Was named All-NFL three times and All-NFC on five occasions . . . Is the second-rated passer in NFL history with a 92.3 rating (Steve Young, 96.8) . . . In 192 career games, he completed 3,409 of 5,391 passes, good for a 63.2% (third all-time to Young - 63.4% & Troy Aikman - 62.4%) . . . Passed for 40,551 yards with 273 touchdowns and just 139 interceptions . . . In '94 he became just the fifth quarterback to ever pass for 40,000 yards . . . Ranks fourth on the all-time passing yardage list, is fourth in pass attempts, third in pass completions and fourth in passing touchdowns . . . Owns career playoff passing records for attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns . . . In 23 postseason affairs, he completed 460 of 734 passes (62.7%) for 5,772 yards with 45 touchdowns and 21 interceptions, good for a 95.3 passer rating . . . Is the only NFL QB with 5,000 postseason passing yards . . . Rushed for 1,674 yards and 20 touchdowns on 457 carries during the regular season and amassed 310 yards and two scores on 63 totes during the playoffs . . . His ability to bring a team back from the teeth of defeat was so extraordinary it has a name: "Montana Magic" . . . During his career, he engineered 31 fourth-quarter comebacks, including the playoffs . . . Two of those comebacks were playoff wins for the Chiefs in '94 . . . Had an exceptional 117-47 (71.3%) regular season record as a starter . . . Was 15-8 (65.2%) as a starter in postseason action . . . His 117 regular season wins are the third-most ever behind Fran Tarkenton (125) and Johnny Unitas (119) . . . Holder of NFL records for most consecutive games with 300 or more passing yards (five in '82) and most consecutive passes completed (22 in '87) . . . Led the NFL in completion percentage five times, three shy of Len Dawson's league record . . . Owns 49er records for most seasons with 3,000 passing yards (seven), most career attempts (4,600), completions (2,929), yards (35,124) and touchdowns (244) . . . Won NFL passing titles in both '87 and '89 . . . Topped the NFC in passing five times ('81, '84, '85, '87 and '89) . . . From '81-93, he finished in the top three in his conference (NFC except '93) in passing every season he qualified: first ('81, '84, '85, '87 & '89); second ('86 & '93 - AFC); third ('82, '83, '88 & '90) . . . Had 39 games with 300 or more passing yards, fourth-most in NFL history, including seven of at least 400 yards . . . Had six career postseason 300-yard passing games, an NFL record . . . Owns nearly every Super Bowl passing mark . . . His 5,427 passing yards in '93-94 put him in fifth place on Kansas City's all-time list . . . In two years with the Chiefs, he completed 480 of 791 passes (60.7%) with 29 TDs and 16 INTs. 1994: Started 14 games (9-5 record), missing two with a foot injury . . . Completed 299 of 493 passes (60.6%) for 3,283 yards with 16 TDs and nine INTs; rushed for 17 yards on 18 totes . . . Passed for 3,000 yards for the eighth time in his career; only Dan Marino (10) and John Elway (nine) have achieved that feat more often . . . His attempt and completion totals were the second-highest ever by a Chiefs QB; in '83 Bill Kenney was 346-of-603 . . . His 3,283 yards were his most since '90 (3,944) and the third-most in Chiefs annals . . . Had four 300-yard games in '94, raising his career total to 39 . . . His 300-yard efforts: 24-33-315 2 TDs vs. Saints (9/4); 28-39-361 2 TDs & 2 INTs vs. Falcons (9/18); 37-55-310 1 INT vs. Chargers (10/9); and 34-54-393 3 TDs 1 INT vs. Broncos (10/17) . . . Engineered thrilling, 31-28, comeback win on Monday Night Football at Denver (10/17), marching the Chiefs 75 yards on nine plays in final 1:29 for the victory, hitting WR Willie Davis for a five-yard TD with eight seconds remaining in the contest . . . On the game-winning drive, he completed six of seven passes for 65 yards . . . Also led Chiefs to a fourth-quarter comeback win vs. Cleveland (11/20), giving him 31 for his career (five with Kansas City) . . . Long before the Chiefs hit the

to bring you the best from the farm.

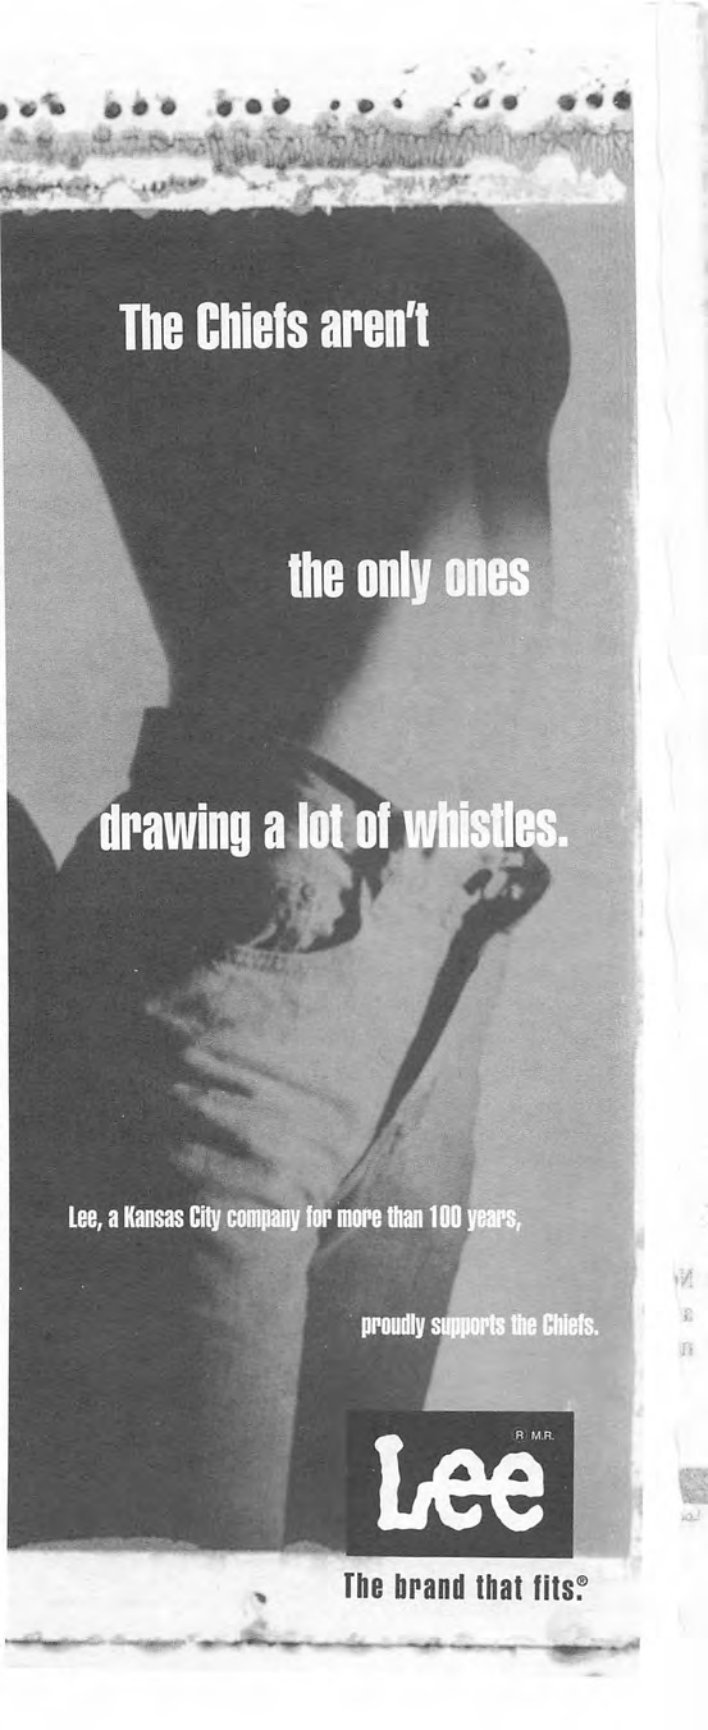

When it's time to tailgate, it's time for Farmland Brats, Smoked Sausages and Backyard BBQ Ribs. Farmland is the only farmer-owned meat company. And that means better quality in every bite. It's why the Chiefs serve Farmland at Arrowhead. And why you should serve it to your family, too.

Proud to be farmer-owned™
